GREEN HORNET #4

RED SONJA #20

HAIL TO THE CHIEF!

I don't need to tell you, that it's been a rough few months for Diamond and the Comics Industry. The Coronavirus pandemic has affected our lives and our livelihoods in so many ways, most of them bad. Printers closed, warehouses closed, stores closed… most people forced to stay at home and work (hopefully) remotely, but many more out of work and trying to make ends meet. It hasn't been easy. We began this year at Diamond in a period of restructuring and reorganizing, bringing in new leadership to upgrade our systems and software, and usher us into the 21st century the true leaders in our industry. Then Covid-19 happened.

But as things ran their course and we started to move toward reopening the warehouses and getting the industry back in motion, our founder Steve Geppi, Baltimore native and longtime comic book fan and collector, began making the rounds of online comics podcasts and news sites. In interview after interview, Steve proved himself to be a champion of the industry, the positive voice we all needed to hear and had missed for so long. People loved him, and loved hearing his positive messaging for the industry.

Recently, Steve Geppi announced that he would be returning to the role of President and CEO of Diamond Comic Distributors, Inc., the crown jewel in the Geppi Family Enterprises roster of companies, which includes Alliance Game Distribution, Baltimore Magazine, Diamond Select Toys, and Gemstone Publishing. And I for one couldn't be happier.

Not to be too nerdy about it (but here I go…), much like Admiral Kirk in the Star Trek II: The Wrath of Khan, Steve retired from the day-to-day workings of Starfle… I mean, Diamond… a few years back. But when things got serious, he realized that being in command of Diamond was where he has always belonged.
So welcome back, Steve. Need I say it?
You have the conn…

And speaking of comebacks, as you're reading this issue, FREE COMIC BOOK *SUMMER is just finishing its first month of releases! That's right, the DAY has been spread into an entire SUMMER of FREE comic books from some of your favorite publishers and new ones you may have yet to try out. Over on page 28 of this issue, you'll find a complete, week-by-week release schedule for this year's FREE comic books. Now you can plan when you need to get to your local comic shop to score those FREE comics you need… or just show up every week — your retailers need your weekly support!

2020 is going to go down in history as one of the worst years for the United States (and the rest of the world) on record. But we can celebrate the small victories, the small (safe) steps we're all taking to return to a life that is more "normal"… and although the convention season has been a bust this year, we can hopefully look forward to a better, safer convention season in 2021. Fingers crossed, good thoughts, hopes and prayers, and all that.

We've gotten this far, let's see where the next six months take us.
And until next month — stay safe, stay healthy, and stay on course.
We will get through this, friends.

Your Pal @ PREVIEWS,

Marty

This on-sale date will apply to all editions of The Guide #50, including The Big, Big Overstreet Comic Book Price Guide #50.

Our Golden Anniversary edition is offered as Spawn-Spider-Man crossover by Todd McFarlane, Valiant Heroes, or Wynonna Earp, each in hardcover or softcover, in addition to the Big, Big edition with an homage cover to the Guide #1. We extend our thanks to our loyal readers, retailers, Overstreet Advisors, advertisers, and other supporters, who have patiently waited for this date.

Aboard the Vagrant Queen's Ship

In 2018, writer Magdalene Visaggio, inker Jason Smith, and colorist Harry Saxon introduced readers to Vagrant Queen. Set in another galaxy (not yours – as the book's tagline assures), Elida was a child queen who was driven from her throne when she was just 10 years old. To avoid being assassinated by the revolutionaries, Elida had to evade them by staying on the move, traveling the galaxy.

Years later, as a young woman, she has established a new off the grid life when she learns some shocking news. An old frenemy claims to know that her long-lost mother is alive and her location. This revelation makes the reluctant vagrant queen return to her former kingdom to attempt a rescue mission.

Paul Goresh Beatles Photo Collection Rocks at Auction

Spaniard In The Works, the last book signed by Lennon realized $18,000. The Minolta XG 1 camera that took the last photos of Lennon went for $5,900. Other top sales were the Beatles ice cream box for $3,028, Ringo Starr's worn, signed sunglasses for $2,923, and The Beatles at Shea Stadium handbill for $2,125.

- Paradiso Vol. 1: Essential Singularity TP (FEB180586)

Please tell us a bit about yourself!

Ram V. is an award-winning author and creator of comics and graphic novels such as Paradiso (FEB180586), These Savage Shores (AUG192342) and Grafity's Wall (NOV190200). His short stories and comics have appeared in various publications. Since self-publishing his first book in 2016, he's also gone on to write for iconic characters at DC Comics and Marvel. Conspirator and troublemaker at the White Noise Studio comics collective, Ram currently lives in London — dog person, doodles, argumentative melancholic.

What are your favorite projects you've contributed to over the past decade?

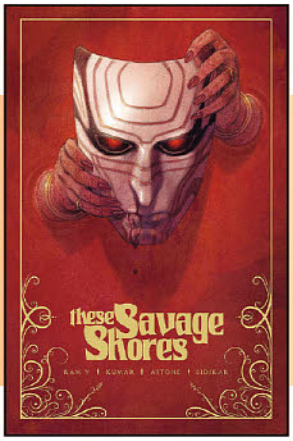

I love all my projects with equal obsession. But of the lot, These Savage Shores probably speaks the most to my growth as a writer.

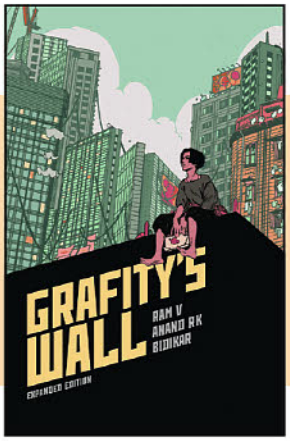

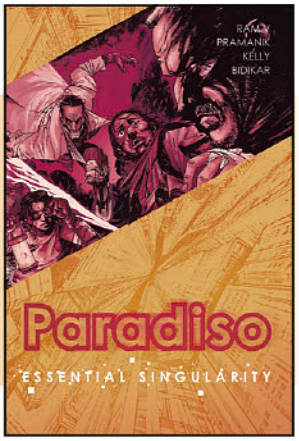

What are you currently working on?

I am currently wrapping up an original graphic novel with artist Anand RK, Blue in Green (FEB208762), a haunting portrayal of a young musician's pursuit of creative genius. It'll be hitting shelves on Wednesday, October 28. Soon after that both Anand RK and I will jump onto another creator-owned project called Radio Apocalypse. I've also got a project with artist Evan Cagle that is currently unannounced, but one that I am very excited about. Apart from these I do ongoing work on multiple titles at DC and Marvel.

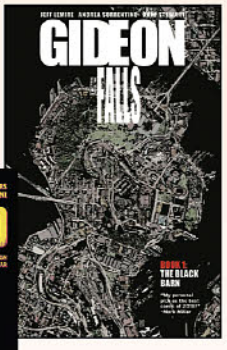

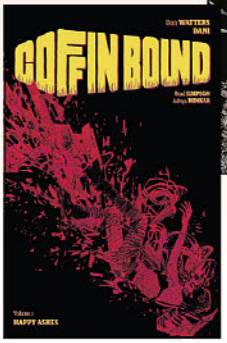

What fun titles are you reading?

Coffin Bound (JAN200182): An entirely unique brand of weird — this crime drama is told through a grindhouse lens with a philosophical bent. It is unlike anything else out there. Dan Watters' writing is like biting into ripe fruit and Dani's work speaks of an artist with a unique inky aesthetic who is reinforcing the fact that she has a voice of her own.

Gideon Falls (AUG180153): Lemire and Sorrentino magic. I've been a big fan of Jeff's more grounded work with his previous books. But his voice and Sorrentino's art are instant fits to that surrealist horror genre. Gideon Falls is a beautiful and unnerving book.

Little Bird (AUG190079): Every once in a while, a voice comes along in comics — you read them the first time and you instantly know they get it. Little Bird by Darcy Van Poelgeest and Ian Bertram is one such book. A solid story told with a sensibility and style that reinvigorated my love for the medium.

USER'S GUIDE

There's a lot of awesome comics and products to look through in PREVIEWS. "A lot" might be a bit of an understatement, as each month's catalog is filled with hundreds and hundreds of pages of upcoming comics and related merchandise! It can be easy to accidentally overlook a new series you've been dying to read or a figure you've been pining to add to your shelf when there's so many things to browse. That's why we've put together this guide to help you learn how to use PREVIEWS like a pro to order the awesome titles and products you want!

Learn How to Use PREVIEWS to Order From Your Comic Shop!

WHAT EXACTLY IS PREVIEWS?

PREVIEWS is part catalog, part magazine (we call it a Mag-a-log!) of monthly listings of all of the upcoming comic titles and related products from your favorite publishers and manufacturers in one convenient place. And don't worry—PREVIEWS is organized by publisher and product type (and color-coded to boot!), to make it easy to find and flip to the section or items you're looking for. Each item listing has the information you need, such as format, size, page count, price, release date, stock or item code, and descriptive text, and nearly every listing is accompanied by artwork or images.

The most important aspect of PREVIEWS to remember is that items solicited in the catalog are anticipated to ship 2-3 months later (or more). For example, if you found a comic you wanted in the May issue of PREVIEWS, you can expect to see it turn up in your local comic shop in July. The catalog can be a great resource for figuring out where your favorite comic series is going, or for discovering new ones that you'll want to add to your library—not to mention all the other awesome products!

HOW DO I ORDER FROM PREVIEWS?

When you've picked out all of the items you want, you can fill out the Short Order Form included in your copy of PREVIEWS and submit it to your local comic shop. You can also ask your friendly neighborhood retailer about obtaining a Customer Order Form, a booklet that contains a complete listing of all the items made available for that month. These forms make pre-ordering your comics and products a breeze and can help your local comic shop decide what to stock in the store for other customers, too! Be sure to also ask your retailer about their pullbox or subscription service. Once you've submitted your order, you can sit back and relax, or try to contain your excitement until your comics and merchandise arrive!

CAN SPIDER-MAN WITHSTAND KINDRED'S "LAST REMAINS"?

One of Spider-Man's newest foes — the enigmatic Kindred — poses a chilling threat to the wallcrawler as "Last Remains" begins in Nick Spencer and Patrick Gleason's Amazing Spider-Man #50 from Marvel Comics this October!

Kindred appears to have come from the pits of Hell and, knowing all of Spider-Man's secrets, including his secret identity as Peter Parker, has embarked on a war in the shadows against the wallcrawler for reasons as unknown as Kindred's own identity. Peter Parker quickly finds himself unprepared and overwhelmed as Kindred's plot against him and his loved ones unfolds! And what does the re-emergence of the Green Goblin entail!?

Nick Spencer's acclaimed run on Amazing Spider-Man continues as he reteams with fan-favorite artist Patrick Gleason for "Last Remains." The seeds for this story arc have been planted throughout Spencer's run, and Gleason's fluid and energetic style perfectly complements Spencer's story.

Whether you've been reading Amazing Spider-Man or wanting to jump on board, the first chapter of "Last Remains" in the over-sized Amazing Spider-Man #50 is a can't-miss title this October!

Written by Doctor Who veteran Cavan Scott with art by Juan Samu, IDW Publishing's Transformers/Back to the Future comes your way this autumn!

A NEW ERA, A NEW #1!
COVER A BY GHOST IN THE SHELL ARTIST

The acclaimed comic series, set in the world of the award-winning game LIFE IS STRANGE from Square Enix and DONTNOD, returns!

Following on from the events of Life is Strange: Strings, the trio of friends Max, Chloe and Rachel embark on a coast-to-coast road trip of multiple lifetimes following the band 'The High Seas' towards an uncertain destiny! We sat down with writer Emma Vieceli to find out what to expect.

COVER A BY ILYA KUVSHINOV

EMMA VIECELI

When you first played out your own story in the game, did you ever think that one day you would get to write an original comic series for this title?

I definitely didn't! Even when I was doing some promotional artwork for Square Enix back during the first game's release, I still wouldn't have believed there'd even 'be' a comic, let alone that I'd be writing it!

Without any spoilers, can you tell us what was your favourite moment to write from the first series?

It's hard to pinpoint a favourite moment, but I'd certainly say the exchanges between Max and Rachel were pretty special to write, just because they felt like conversations we'd never get to see, given that the pair never had a chance to meet in the games. I'd also have to say that introducing new characters into the world has been a thrill. Life is Strange was never a game about two people. The surrounding cast made that first game special for me; a community to immerse in.

Which character do you think has changed the most over the course of the comic?

Max is the obvious answer here. Emotionally, she has been growing through guilt, acceptance and understanding. The first season looked at the question of running from guilt and ownership of our actions; how it's hard to ask acceptance from others if you've not accepted yourself. Max has grown through all of that to get to where she is by the time we dive into season two, where we see a Max who knows what she wants and is taking ownership over her plans to get it.

What is your favourite part of writing? Is it plotting out where you intend to take the story or writing the actual dialogue itself?

Dialogue, for sure. If I can inhabit a character when I write them and they feel alive enough to make their own choices, then the dialogue is a total joy to write and can swerve in fascinating directions that I could never entirely plan for.

What has it been like working with artists Claudia Leonardi and Andrea Izzo?

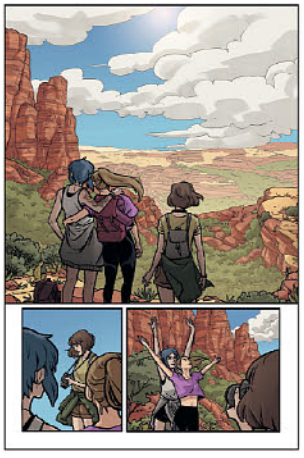

It's so much fun to send off scripts and then watch them materialise. I know how hard Claudia and Andrea have been working and how much thought goes into every page - it really brings the project to life. They're huge fans of the franchise, so I'll often see little add-ins that weren't in my scripts, like Chloe's 'Remember Me' T-shirt in Strings; that was all Claudia and Andrea!

What are you most looking forward to in this new second series?

The key thing is the control we're getting over this season. The first arc of the comic was originally planned as just four issues before it was extended. For season two, myself, Titan and Square Enix have already fixed a plan for the whole season which we're very excited about! It's thanks to all the fans that supported us throughout season one that we're able to approach season two in this way, so thank you!

"JAZZ APPLE ARMAGEDDON," Part One

The fate of the world rests in the hands of the worst person on it!

NEW ONGOING SERIES from the writer of DEADLY CLASS! RICK REMENDER launches an all-new comedy espionage series, THE SCUMBAG—the story of Ernie Ray Clementine, a profane, illiterate, drug-addicted biker with a fifth-grade education. He's the only thing standing between us and total Armageddon because this dummy accidentally received a power-imbuing serum, making him the world's most powerful super spy.

This new ongoing series will feature a murderers' row of all-star artistic talent rotating each issue. The first issue showcases the stunning work of LEWIS LaROSA, with subsequent chapters and covers by brilliant talents such as ANDREW ROBINSON, ERIC POWELL, TULA LOTAY, WES CRAIG, ROLAND BOSCHI, SIMONE DI MEO, MARGUERITE SAUVAGE, DUNCAN FEGREDO, YANICK PAQUETTE, MIKE McKONE, DAVE JOHNSON, MORENO DINISIO, and many more!

BUZZKILL meets The Boys in an irreverent superhero story where the power-wielding main character resembles a grown-up Matthew McConaughey from Dazed and Confused rather than society's idea of a hero.

I'M SORRY.
I DON'T UNDERSTAND HOW SHE COULD CHEAT ON ME.

I DON'T GET IT.
HOW DO YOU OPEN UP YOUR RELATIONSHIP AND THEN GET CHEATED ON?
WE HADN'T REACHED ANY CONCLUSIONS.

I'M MORE OF AN XTUBE GUY MYSELF.

SHE WENT AND DID SOMETHING SEPARATE.

OH GOD, ARE YOU TEXTING HER NOW!?
PLEASE DON'T TALK TO HER.
RELAX, IT'S NOT.

YOU REMEMBER THE STRANGEST DETAILS WHEN IT COMES TO A MATTER OF DEATH.
FOR INSTANCE, I REMEMBER GETTING THE CALL LIKE A REFINED MEMORY. EVERYTHING AROUND THAT INSTANT, CLARIFIED THROUGH REPETITION.
IT WAS A SATURDAY MORNING. THE KIND OF DAY THAT USED TO YOU ABOUT HOW COLD IT REALLY IS.
A LITTLE AFTER ELEVEN. I'D JUST FINISHED CLASS AT THE RUPPRECHT.

I'M AT THE DESK, CLEANING THE SPIT-VALVE WHEN I NOTICE KENNY LITMAN HOVERING.
AFTER AN UNCERTAIN, WANDERING PAUSE, HE COMES UP TO ME AND GOES, MISTER DIETER, HOW DO I KNOW IF I'M REALLY ANY GOOD?
WHAT DO YOU MEAN, KENNY?
I MEAN, WHAT IF I'M TERRIBLE AT PLAYING THE SAX AND I JUST CAN'T HEAR IT?
OR, Y'KNOW, I COULD BE REALLY GOOD BUT SO GOOD THAT NO ONE BUT ME SEES IT.
I... I GUESS WHAT I'M ASKING IS, HOW DO I KNOW I'M NOT SOME KIND OF GENIUS?
DOES IT REALLY MATTER?
WELL... YEAH! IT DOES. I WANT TO BE SUCCESSFUL. I DON'T WANT TO END UP TEACHING MORNING CLASSES ON SATURDAY.

HELLO? DINAH?
NO, NO, THAT'S FINE.
I... I'M SORRY, KENNY, BUT I NEED TO TAKE THIS. WE'LL TALK NEXT SATURDAY, OKAY?
JESUS... I'M SORRY.
NO, OF COURSE. I'LL BE THERE. THANK YOU FOR CALLING ME.
OH... OH, I SEE. WHEN?
YEAH... I'LL SEE YOU THEN, DINAH.
I TAKE AN EARLY FLIGHT ON SUNDAY.
THEY MAKE US SIT ON THE RUNWAY FOR TWO HOURS BEFORE WE CAN LEAVE. THE WINGS ARE FROZEN, THEY TELL US.
AS WE TAKE OFF, MY THOUGHTS ARE DARK, COLORED BY DEATH.
FORTY THOUSAND FEET IN THE AIR, I IMAGINE AN ACCIDENT. A FAILURE. A COLLISION.

I IMAGINE FALLING THROUGH THE SKY. I AM REMINDED OF THE FRAGILITY OF ALL THINGS.
ALL OF US, FALLING THROUGH LIFE LIKE HEAVY SNOWFLAKES.
I WONDER HOW MANY WILL DISAPPEAR EVEN BEFORE THEY HIT THE GROUND. FROM DUST, TO DUST, A LIFE UNREMEMBERED.
THE SERVICE IS ON WEDNESDAY. I CAN'T REMEMBER THE LAST TIME IT SNOWED SO MUCH.
THEY LOWER MY MOTHER INTO THE GROUND AND DINAH IS INCONSOLABLE.
WE STAND IN SILENCE AS FATHER MORTHY GIVES SOMBER THINGS ABOUT SHADOWS AND EVIL.
I HAVEN'T HUGGED MY SISTER IN YEARS.

The campaign trail is paved with blood and broken bones.

History diverged one fateful day in 1868, when presidential candidate Horatio Seymour lost his temper mid-debate and violently attacked Ulysses S. Grant, earning him not only widespread popularity but the presidency as well. Today, elections are decided by brutal, highly publicized hand-to-hand combat in arenas called Stumps. And in a society that adores violence this much, it's no surprise that powerful people get away with murder. But not for long—not if Senator Jack Hammer and FBI Agent Anna Bell Lister have anything to say about it.

Eisner-nominated writer CHUCK BROWN (BITTER ROOT, Rotten Apple) teams up with artist FRANCESCO CHIAPPARA and letterer CLAYTON COWLES for a political action series set in a hyper-violent world full of countless injustices and people who have to fight for their place in it.

The Mass Effect Trilogy redefined RPGs as we know them, and we're excited to bring our first Mass Effect ship replica back for a new generation, due to popular demand. Just as the Alliance recommissioned the Normandy SR-2; we too proudly announce the re-release of a custom-crafted miniature version of the SSV Normandy SR-2.

As the Normandy evolved with each subsequent game, so too has our newly remastered ship replica has also been advanced. With this 6.25" model redesigned base emblazoned with a metallic N7 logo this is the perfect addition to add to your "Captain's Cabin" for all veterans of the System Alliance!

$14.99	ISBN: 978-1-60309-480-1
AVAILABLE IN DECEMBER

Teen girls rewrite the universe on a daily basis! This comic collection proves there's nothing better than using your imagination… except maybe talking nonsense with your friends. Hey, why not both?

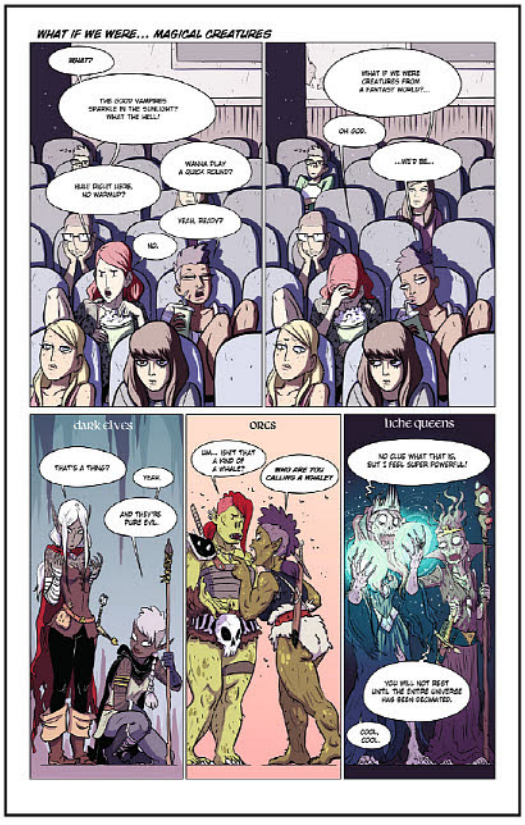

Nathalie and Marie are 17 years old and best friends. Since elementary school, they've been creatively filling moments of boredom with a game called "What If We Were...?". One player names a topic—let's say "vampire slayers" for example—and then both imagine what life would be like as that subject. "I would only hunt vampires during daytime, because it would be less exhausting" would be a good answer. "I would only hunt them for sport, to eventually sell their skins" could be another, if a little disturbing.

Easy to play, but hard to master. An expert player will know how to think outside the box and surprise their opponent. And after all these years, Nathalie and Marie are experts!

Shortlisted for the Prix des Libraires du Quebec, What If We Were… collects dozens of these games as hilarious and addictive comic strips, along with super-fun bonus material like diary entries, bonus comics, and more.

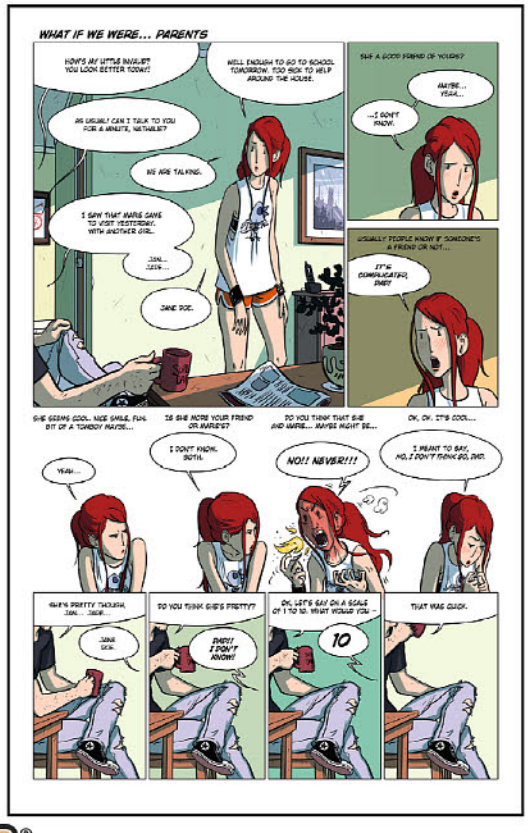

"The concept is original and really well explored... plus the drawing is great! The characters are funny, yet believable—and always fabulously dressed. I really want these two girls to be my best friends!"
—Chronicles of a Book Addict

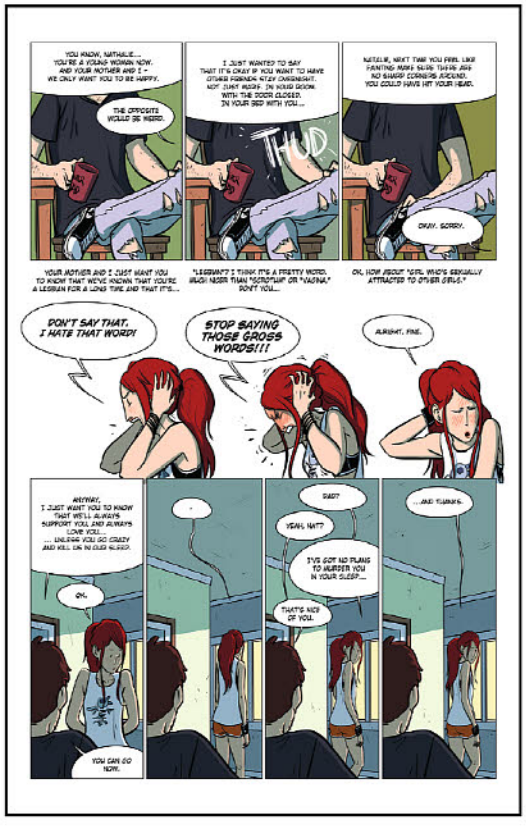

WHAT IF WE WERE... © AXELLE LENOIR

"Axelle Lenoir has a remarkable talent for capturing adolescence... her female characters, here as in Camp Spirit, are completely credible, and avoid the usual clichés. They're both fragile and strong, shy and extroverted, made of paradoxes."
—Sophie Lit

Presenting the complete saga of rabbit ronin Miyamoto Usagi from the very beginning, in new, definitive color editions!

Before his journey as a wandering, masterless samurai (ronin) began, Usagi underwent intense training under a mountain hermit, Katsuichi-Sensei, taking his first steps down the path of the warrior. Eventually, that path leads him to the pivotal battle of Adachigahara, which serves as the impetus for the host of amazing tales to come.

Collected in full color as never before, discover–or rediscover–the critical origin of Stan Sakai's most beloved character as he tells his story, setting the stage for the decades-long epic that follows. Collects IDW's Usagi Yojimbo Color Classics #1–7, which present 1987's "Samurai" storyline in color for the first time.

WILL THE DIE!NAMITE CREATIVE TEAM SURVIVE THEIR OWN BOOK?

DIE!namite is quite the fun title for a comic book! So beyond that clever bit, what exactly is this book? Who is in it? Tell us more!

DECLAN SHALVEY: For me, it's all about the title, who cares about the 'story' or 'characters'...? Just kidding!

DIE!namite is a big, bold mishmash of genres, pitting the biggest characters Dynamite has to offer against the greatest threat they've ever faced; a chilling force of undead creatures! It has Vampirella, Red Sonja, Project Superpowers, and much more. This book spans cities, space, time, and universes, no one is safe from being eaten alive!

Declan, over the past couple years you've gotten more into writing (Bog Bodies, Deadpool vs Old Man Logan), becoming a two-way threat on top of being one of the best artists in the biz. This may be your biggest project yet — how did you begin to approach it?

DECLAN: Well, I was excited by the potential scope of the series. A lot of ideas were shaken out of me by having a back and forth with editor Nate Cosby. What's great is that we get to use all the biggest Dynamite characters, but also play around with them a bit and see them in a different light. Zombie books are always fun and the threat is a great way to force these very disparate characters together. From a writing standpoint, it was a challenge to do something that feels more like a blockbuster movie than say, an indie crime film.

With your artistic background, how does that impact the way you write for others and collaborate with not just Justin, but Chris and Gabriela here?

DECLAN: I believe it does, and hopefully in a positive way! I definitely have an idea of what I'm looking for, but what was most important was building a great team. Chris and I have worked together before, but Justin and Gabriela were new names to me. Once I saw their work though, we pounced on them. When you have such a great team, it's important to let them contribute their best and improve what I had in the script. It's hugely exciting to see the pages come in, they look amazing and the best thing of all is... I didn't have to draw them!

Let's put those claims to the test! Justin, you're still early into your career [check out Vengeance of Vampirella #5!]. How has it been working with Declan and particularly artist to artist?

JUSTIN MASON: Its fantastic working with Declan! With him being an artist, it's a lot more fun because we both have the same interests and ideas. Declan always pushes me as an artist which is helping me grow, throwing some ideas my way and vice versa. Honestly, working on this book doesn't even feel like work, it's more of a learning experience under Declan. I couldn't have been more blessed with this opportunity and I'm so thankful to be a part of such a stacked creative team.

Chris, on other projects like the smash hit Immortal Hulk or Ice Cream Man, you've dealt in mixing genres, such as traditional superhero/sci-fi/action with touches of horror. How are you handling the coloring on this? And we imagine there will be lots of red blood!

CHRIS O'HALLORAN: I have done a bit of work mixing those kinds of aspects so I'm used to it. Letting the characters shine but getting the tone right for the story is certainly the goal here. Each of the characters is coming from a different genre essentially, so playing with that and placing them together in the same world is part of my attraction to this. That and matching the incredible energy Justin brings to the story with his art. But the fun part... Blood and gore. Is there a lot of red? Read and find out. (*There will be more than plenty of it)

Sometimes zombies like to mumble, growl, and then they get to biting and tearing at flesh. You also have a diverse cast of characters from across space and even time periods. How will some of those factors or other challenges show up in the lettering, Gabriela?

GABRIELA DOWNIE: With so many variables involved, it's important to keep it simple and polished! Relying on teammates is key, every member brings value to the project. Editors, artists, and writers have knowledge and experiences I can learn from, so trusting my teammates to guide me is key! Equally, trusting in me and my unique take on lettering is important too, for crafting an innovative product. Together we create a voice so vivid, and clear, it jumps out at the reader from the page!

Which characters are you guys most excited to depict kicking some zombie ass - or getting torn to shreds and turned?

DECLAN: I wrote a scene in #2 with an epic shot of Red Sonja fighting an army of medieval zombies with an axe and I cannot wait to see how that looks!

CHRIS: I'm eager to see some Red Sonja action tearing through the undead too!

JUSTIN: Red Sonja has to be that character for me because she's a straight-up badass! Hands down the deadliest thing to come at you with an axe. There's just so much blood to be had while drawing any panels with her against zombies. I guarantee there's never going to be a boring scene with her!

GABRIELA: Zombies really test a character's ability to problem-solve on the spot! Hopefully, the desperation to survive will help bring out new sides to characters we think we already know...

How should fans preorder this book with their Local Comic Shop?

EVERYONE: Yell "I want DIEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEnamite #1!!!"

PANEL TO SCREEN

Now, more than ever, the fantastic stories, characters and concepts that came into existence in the pages of comic books are making the transition to TV and movie screens. What fandom has known for decades, is that comic books can, and in many cases are, great literature. Hollywood has for over a century adapted great prose works into great film adaptations. And they still do to this day. Except the bestsellers-turned-movies now have some very strong (and heroic) competition! In honor of our Panel to Screen theme this month, we recommend trying out these great graphic novels and collections, which all went on to serve as the basis for popular films, TV shows and cartoons. And look for our Panel to Screen icon throughout this issue for more great titles!

THE VAULT OF CEREBUS ONE-SHOT

(A) Dave Sim, Gustave Dore
(CA) Dave Sim & Various
First annual Hallowe'en Special because a) it's an EC Horror parody and b) unlike everyone else's Hallowe'en Special it will actually come out in October! Featuring not only Benjamin Hobbs' sequel to The Varking Dead (March, 2020) featuring Batvark and the previously Un-Beddable Vark (who is now fornicating like crazy with the Varking Dead and only qualifies as "un-beddable" because no beds are involved) but also featuring two big 7-page gammakpooz stories written by Dave Sim, "I, gammakpooz!" and "gammakpooz and me" featuring multiple uses of the previously unpublished variant glamourpuss zombie cover! (STL165117)

BATVARK XXXXX ONE-SHOT

(W) Dave Sim (A) Dave Sim, Gustave Dore (CA) Dave Sim & Various
Parody of the 2018-19 Batman: Damned proving that even a low-budget publisher like Aardvark-Vanaheim can do a cheesy knock-off of Neil Gaiman's 1990 Books of Magic. All you need is a cast of mystery characters and a title character with "Bat" in his name! Batvark gets a new XXXXX — Michelangelo's David's XXXXX, in fact! — so he can "Go Commando" and have the "fine art defence" for legal cover. Note: This is a penis-less titled variant cover to Batvark Penis. AL MORGAN cover

The Truth is Worth Fighting For.

As a child, James Bellyi watched his father die in the ring as payback for slurs he threw at his opponent. Today, James is a Mixed Martial Arts star at the top of his game, and one of the most popular fighters in the world...until he's outed as gay in his title shot press conference.

Abandoned overnight by his training camp, his endorsements, his fans and his sport, to regain his title shot, Bellyi is forced to turn to the last person he ever wanted to see again: Xavier Mayne, a gay, once-fighter in his own right...and the man James watched kill his father.

A singular achievement from writers Steve Orlando (Martian Manhunter, DEAD KINGS) and Phillip Kennedy Johnson (Aquaman, Adventure Time, The Last Time), and artist Al Morgan (Midnighter, Daredevil, Battlestar Galactica).

KILL A MAN will be printed in a 6.5 x 9.5 softcover format.

Winston Wallis is the last human living in a world populated by demons, monsters and enormous creatures known as Colossals who all picked up where humanity left off– lying, stealing, cheating and killing.

Which is good for Win–he's a private investigator looking into petty secrets of the monsters who employ him. Years ago he was more: a detective who solved real crimes...until he was fired from the force.

Now, his ex-partner needs help with solving a new murder...that of the world's largest Colossal. Win is hesitant to get involved, but his partner has an ace up his sleeve–he knows Win's secret, the magical curse that gives Win uncanny good luck and an ability to survive dangerous situations.

Can Win's impossible luck last? Or will this new case finally be his death? Win certainly hopes so...

MINDVISCOSITY
By Matt Furie
$39.99 / HC / 196 pgs /FC / 9" × 9"

From Matt Furie (Boy's Club) comes Mindviscosity, a collection of paintings depicting monsters, weirdos, beasts, and anthropomorphs all done in Furie's meticulous style of representational surrealism. Produced in the wake of his experience as the creator of Pepe the frog (whose appropriation by neo-Nazi's can be seen in the new feature film, Feels Good Man), his unsettling menagerie of creatures seem content to withhold their true intent despite the paintings' inviting colors and friendly cartoon iconography.

COVER STORY: What's Your Favorite Cover?

As I write this, post-shutdown new comics Wednesday has returned in some form to just about everywhere in the country, but things are still far from "normal." Many of us are continuing to look for ways we can encourage and support local comic shops. In addition to all the exciting new comics featured in the pages of this PREVIEWS, don't forget you can also #BackTheComeback by purchasing back issues from their inventory.

Whether you're talking Jim Steranko's much-imitated art for Incredible Hulk Annual #1, the frequently revisited classic cover for Detective Comics #31, or something wholly original, one popular niche of collecting has always been great covers.

What makes the best comic book covers? It's a great topic for debate. For us as individuals there is no wrong answer, of course. It's purely subjective. But with a little thought it is frequently possible to explain what it is about a particular image that grabs you. The best ones are the ones that make you stop and check out something you weren't previously going to purchase – and in some cases, you even pick up a title you've never even heard of before.

And of course, this isn't confined exclusively to superhero comics. There are lots of great covers from every generation, and for my money some of the best have been crime comics. From the early pioneering Golden Age days to Sin City to today, crime has – at least in this sense – certainly paid.

One of the real greats, often forgotten because it was produced in magazine size was Eclipse #6, cover dated July 1982. It was the early days of the comic book specialty market and Eclipse's Dean Mullaney was one of the people who were willing to try just about anything to creatively capture the reader's attention.

Gulacy's photorealistic style contrasts with regular Ms. Tree artist Terry Beatty, but neither artist (or his work) is hurt by the comparison. The piece had such an almost tangible sense of mystery about it. It provoked questions. It sparked the imagination.

What are your favorites? Now is a great time to let your comic book retailer know you're looking for them!

America's best-known hard boiled detective, Mike Hammer, returns with Hermes Press' complete archival reprint of the entire continuity, From the Files of... Mike Hammer! Reprinting all of the dailies and Sunday strips, this book will be the final word on this pop culture icon. The strip ran for only one year, 1953-1954, but what a year it was! The strip is pure Mickey Spillane and was crafted under his watchful eye with art by Ed Robbins. The feature has everything fans of Mike Hammer would expect: Mike, Velda, good girls, bad girls, gun-play and lots of action. (STK466836)

THE LOUVRE COLLECTION: LEONARDO 2 GN

(W/A) Stephane Levallois

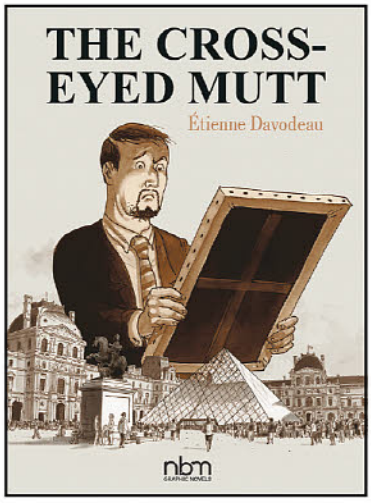

Planet Earth, engaged in an intergalactic conflict, owes its salvation to the clone of Leonardo da Vinci and to the rebirth of his genius. Author Stéphane Levallois has created the fantastic universes of many Hollywood blockbusters, and this space opera exemplifies his talent in two areas that he masters to perfection: the universe of science fiction and art. To build his story and compose his boards, Levallois draws from the painted and drawn work of the Renaissance master, selecting a large number of drawings and paintings by Leonardo to represent the characters, vessels or even the architectures in his story. The grand scale result is stupefying as Leonardo's everlasting visions are successfully projected into a stunning futuristic setting. (STL164526) (C: 0-1-0)

THE LOUVRE COLLECTION: THE CROSS-EYED MUTT HC

(W/A/CA) Etienne Davodeau

A raucous satirical comedy that asks: Who decides what makes a work of art worthy of being in a major museum? Fabian is supervisor at the Louvre. He loves his job. He also loves Mathilde. When it comes time, she presents him to her family in their vast country house and not without some apprehension, as the Benion clan is a bit special. The fact that Fabian works in the Louvre is a welcome coincidence, since they just found in the attic a painting by an ancestor in the nineteenth century. It's a sorry representation of a cross-eyed mutt. What is the value? ask the Benion. Is this an eyesore or a masterpiece? Fabian, pretty embarrassed, punts on the question. So for the Benion, case closed, if it's not an eyesore then no doubt it has its place on the walls of the Louvre! (STL045189)

ON THE ODD HOURS GN

(W/A/CA) Eric Liberge

The successful series of graphic novels co-published with the Louvre museum in Paris continues. This time, the author invites us on a guided tour of the museum by night when the works of art come alive. Our guide: a deaf night watchman who somehow manages to communicate with the souls of those ethereal and timeless works of art. A visual tour de force with a strong edge of the frighteningly fantastic. (STK408572)

PHANTOMS OF THE LOUVRE HC

(W/A/CA) Enki Bilal

Superstar European SF and Fantasy comics artist Enki Bilal revisits the Louvre in twenty-two portraits. He imagines 22 fates of men, women and children whose lives have been affected by a work of art. They haunt the halls of the Louvre. They are long dead, often violently. They are a Roman legionary, a muse, a painter, a German officer. Each, one day, met a painter or a sculptor and was their model. Bilal startlingly brings them back to life. Both a work of Fantasy and a masterful homage, this was presented in a special exhibition in the Louvre in early 2013. (STK637991)

Chicago, 1941. A blood bank is held up in a robbery, but no cash is taken—only blood. It's the latest in a string of similar crimes and FBI Agent Felix Franklin is certain it's part of a wider plot. But the truth is much more sinister than he could imagine. The four robbers—who call themselves The Vain—are vampires: immortal, physically powerful, and after decades of honing their skills, practically untraceable. But in a world that is rapidly changing, stealing blood is harder every day and with each decade that passes, Agent Franklin inches closer to the truth. Eliot Rahal, Emily Pearson, and Fred C. Stressing kick off a series that spans nearly a century of wild eternal youth and reckless abandon across history.

LON CHANEY SPEAKS GN

(W/A) Pat Dorian

A stunning graphic debut: the life of the legendary silent-film actor Lon Chaney (the original Phantom of the Opera and Hunchback of Notre Dame), as imagined by an artist whose work recalls the style and skill of early-era New Yorker cartoonists. From the artist: "'No one will ever love me!' I believe it was this near-universal fear that makes Lon Chaney's characters continue to resonate with us today. On their surface, most of them are distinctly unlikeable: they are monsters, outcasts, criminals. But through his unique magic, Chaney makes them empathetic. He pioneered the craft of makeup artist long before that term ever existed, and he used his expertise to hide himself from public view — what if nobody loved him?" (STL164463) (C: 0-1-0)

RENOIR GN

(W) Eddy Simon (A) Jak Lemonnier
Art is a family matter for the Renoirs. The path is carved by Pierre-Auguste, the painter who along with Monet, Cézanne, Degas was at the origin of the impressionist movement and continues with Jean, the poetic avant-garde filmmaker. Indisputably one of the masters of French painting of the 19th century, Pierre-Auguste fathered one of the greatest cineastes of the twentieth century in Jean Renoir. From the father's paintings to the son's films, the artist affiliation reveals a similar pursuit, and a single source of inspiration: an ode to freedom finding its origins in a profound humanity and love of reality. But behind their art, there is also the story of the filiation between an old man who is slowly losing his strength and a young man seeking to make his own mark. (STL164498) (C: 0-1-0)

GATEWAY TO ANOTHER WORLD SC

(W) Daisuke Shimizu
Every time a child watches animation, plays a role playing game, or reads fantasy novels, he imagines that he actually exists in the world of those movies, games, or books and deserves to be part of it. This kind of excitement that people experienced in their childhood remains in their heart even when they become adults. This book proves that those fantasy worlds do not exist only in our imagination but actually exist in our real world: a huge tree in an enchanted forest, a witch's magic shop, lodging where you can save your playing data, the remains of an ancient city that waits the last boss. Shimizu Daisuke travels all over the world looking for thrilling moments in which he can feel his fantasy world as an actual place. Perhaps you'll start looking for your own? (STL163809) (C: 0-1-1)

A flabbergasting experiment in publishing hubris, Monograph charts the art and literary world's increasing tolerance for the language of the empathetic doodle directly through the work of one of its most esthetically constipated practitioners. Arranged chronologically with all thoughtful critical and contemporary discussion common to the art book genre jettisoned in favor of Mr. Ware's unchecked anecdotes and unscrupulous personal asides, the author-as-subject has nonetheless tried as clearly and convivially as possible to provide a contrite, companionable guide to an otherwise unnavigable jumble of product spanning his days as a pale magnet for athletic upperclassmen's' ire up to his contemporary life as a stay-at-home dad and agoraphobic graphic novelist. (W) Qiana Whitted
Entertaining Comics Group (EC Comics) is perhaps best-known today for lurid horror comics like Tales from the Crypt, but during its 1950s heyday, EC was also an early innovator in another genre of comics: the so-called "preachies," socially conscious stories that boldly challenged the conservatism and conformity of Eisenhower-era America. EC Comics examines a selection of these works — sensationally-titled comics such as "Hate!," "The Guilty!," and "Judgment Day!" — and explores how they grappled with the civil rights struggle, antisemitism, and other forms of prejudice in America. THE HISTORY OF EC COMICS DELUXE HC

(W) Grant Geissman (A) Harvey Kurtzman & Various

In 1947, Bill Gaines inherited EC Comics, a new venture founded by his legendary father M. C. Gaines. Over the next eight years, Bill Gaines and a "who's who" of the era including Al Feldstein, Harvey Kurtzman, and Wally Wood would reinvent the very notion of the comic book with titles like Tales from the Crypt, Crime SuspenStories, Weird Science, and MAD. EC delighted in publishing gory, morbid horror and crime comics, but they also pioneered true-to-life war comics, "real" science-fiction stories, and a series of tales about then-taboo subjects as racism, bigotry, vigilantism, drug addiction, police corruption, and anti-Semitism. Too good to last, they were eventually caught up by various 1950s guardians of morality, who were convinced that EC's often over-the-top content was causing juvenile delinquency. TASCHEN presents the full, fascinating story of this fabled company, written and designed by EC-expert Grant Geissman. Even the most die-hard EC Fan-Addicts will find something new within these pages. Gathering more than 1,000 illustrations that include the rarest and most notorious covers, interior pages and panels, photos, vintage original artwork, and some of the most celebrated stories ever to be printed, this is the ultimate EC Comics compendium! THE CATS OF OSTIA ANTICA HC

(W/A/CA) Julian Brier

The sun sets on a seemingly normal day over the ruins of the ancient Roman city of Ostia Antica. Its groundskeeper tends to his duties and is kept company by the cats that inhabit the nooks and shadows of the historical site. The usual dinner after work takes a turn as he loses consciousness and is jarred awake, finding himself in a new and eerie reality. Led by one of his feline friends, the groundskeeper makes his way back to the gates of Ostia Antica and what lies ahead is a sight beyond words. A visual feast, this silent graphic novel unveils an imaginative journey and an ever-increasing sense of the extraordinary. (STL163797) (C: 0-1-0)

HC, 8x11, 114pgs, FC $24.99

GOITER #5

(W/A/CA) Josh Pettinger

William Cucumber is having a bad summer. He's lost his crumby job at the beach and has no prospects. His parents are divorcing so he's forced to move out of the house into a tent in the backyard. In an attempt to make money from medical experiments, he inadvertently gets addicted to smoking and develops a nasty rash. Laura is the daughter of his mother's new boyfriend. She's convinced her father is a murderer. Is this true or just another hallucination? Goiter is a quirky, unique, anthology of comics in the spirit of Eightball. Josh is a master at making the ordinary seem weird and uncomfortable as well as funny. (STL163799) (C: 0-1-0)

O/A THE COMIC BOOK IMPLOSION SC

In 1978, DC Comics implemented a bold initiative to combat plummeting sales: Give readers more story pages with a higher cover price, to better compete on newsstands. This "DC Explosion" brought with it many creative new titles, but just weeks after its launch, they pulled the plug, cancelling numerous titles and leaving stacks of completed comic book stories unpublished. It quickly became known as "The DC Implosion", and TwoMorrows Publishing delves into one of the most notorious events in comics with an exhaustive oral history from the creators involved (Jenette Kahn, Paul Levitz, Len Wein, Mike Gold, and others), plus detailed analysis of how it changed the landscape of comics forever! MAC RABOY, MASTER OF THE COMICS HC

Beginning with his WPA etchings during the 1930s, Mac Raboy struggled to survive the Great Depression and eventually found his way into the comic book sweatshops of America. In that world of four-color panels, he perfected his art style on such creations as Dr. Voodoo, Zoro, The Mystery Man, Bulletman, Spy Smasher, Green Lama and his crowning achievement, Captain Marvel Jr. Through extensive research and interviews with son David Raboy, and assistants who worked with the artist during the Golden Age of Comics, author Roger Hill brings Mac Raboy, the man and the artist, into focus for historians to savor and enjoy. TOY TALK: DAVID SILVA

Toys, Statues and other collectibles don't just magically appear on store shelves. A lot of work goes into the concept, design, sculpting and final production of these items, and many of the people who work behind-the-scenes with companies like Diamond Select, DC Collectibles and Gentle Giant, among others, remain mostly unknown to their appreciative audience: the final consumer.

With Toy Talk, we hope to introduce you to the artisans behind some of your favorite collectibles, and to let them enjoy their well-deserved moment in the spotlight!

This month, we welcome Founder of Creative Beast Studio, Designer/Sculptor NECA, David Silva...

How did you get involved in the toy industry as a designer/sculptor?

I first became interested in working in the action figure/ toy industry when I was attending art school in Savannah, GA (SCAD), back in1998. There I would be introduced to some fantastic figures from toy lines such as McFarlane Toys' Spawn, Beast Wars Transformers, and later the 200X Masters of the Universe figures. All the while I was studying for a career drawing comics, but I found that my true interest was action figures. I gradually began beefing up my portfolio with more character design studies and sculptures, and less sequential art. After having sent out portfolios to multiple toy companies, I was thankfully able to get my first design work three weeks after graduating from none other than McFarlane Toys! This would eventually lead to me sculpting for them as well and everything just took off from there.

Working for several companies as you have, what are some of your favorite sculpts that you've created?

My favorites include the McFarlane's Dragons Scavenger Clan (the only figure that I designed AND sculpted for them), and the 1/18th scale Jabba the Hutt and Dewback for Hasbro. But the bulk of my favorite toy projects have been with the company I currently work for, NECA. These include Otachi from Pacific Rim, Machiko (Predator), Clan Leader Predator, Lasershot Predator, Alpha Predator, and Rhino Alien.

Back in 2009 you started Creative Beast Studio. Tell us your inspiration for starting the company?

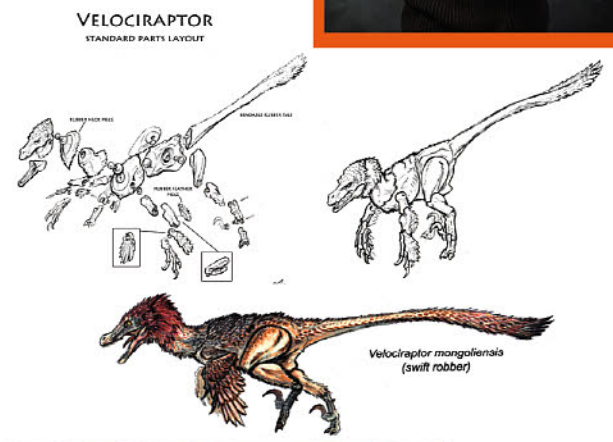

While I was at McFarlane Toys, I became very involved with the Dragons line, as both a designer and a sculptor. With the aim to create more realistic-looking dragon anatomy, I became more interested in animal anatomy, and most specifically dinosaur anatomy. So I began sculpting dinosaurs in my spare time to practice. After completing my first one (Dilophosaurus), it was suggested to me that I make the sculpt into a resin model kit and sell it. I figured 'why not' and it ended up being a great way to share my work with other creative people. That was the beginning of Creative Beast Studio.

Take us through the sculpting process of one of your Beasts of the Mesozoic 1/6th scale Raptor figures?

I knew I wanted to focus on a scientifically accurate Velociraptor as I don't think there were any feathered Velociraptor action figures at that time (this still may be the case now). I felt that presenting the true essence of the animal as best I could would be just as effective as any Hollywood interpretation. So once I had a solid design to work from, I spent several months developing the castilene sculpt and the articulation along with it. I tried a lot of different articulation ideas along the way (poseable head feathers anyone?) but ultimately I was pretty happy with the end result. Once all of the sculpted parts were completed, I had the parts molded and cast in resin. With the resin parts I created a non-working prototype that I then painted to represent the final product. These parts would then be adapted into parts for the rest of the Raptor Series and the process was repeated until all 16 prototypes were done (not counting environment sets and nestlings).

Finally, tell us what is your favorite part of the toy design process?

As far as the actual design process, I definitely like sculpting the best. I love the feeling of moving the clay around and creating something from nothing. It's also by far the most time-consuming aspect of the process, so that works out well. My favorite part overall though is holding and playing with the final painted production figure. To finally see the end result of so much work and problem solving is extremely gratifying. Plus knowing that I'm contributing value to an industry that I have so much love and respect for is a privilege beyond words and I'm happy to continue doing it as long as I'm able to.
