EURO COMICS 2021

Beginning in the United States and then moving around the world, the concept of telling stories through consecutive narrative images (Comics) became a worldwide phenomenon into the 20th Century. Today, comic books and graphic novels are produced around the world, and many of these companies and their creators export their works to the United States to a receptive audience, eager to consume comics from a foreign land. This month, PREVIEWS celebrates the "Language of Comic Books" with our EURO COMICS theme, highlighting great new and classic comics and graphics novels from Europe and the UK. Our product specialists, working with a host of publishers, have added many great graphic novels from European and UK creators throughout this issue. # HAPPY NEW YEAR, FROM PREVIEWS!

Welcome to the 33rd year of publication of PREVIEWS! Although I'm writing this in early December 2020, I have to say it's good to have 2020 behind us. Of course, we'll be living under the effects of 2020 and Covid-19 for months to come, but with vaccines beginning to roll out slowly and a new administration in the White House, things will hopefully be looking up. Like many of you, I have no idea when I will get my "jabs", so I'll just have to keep living life like it's 2020... just better... and with Masks, Hand Washing, and Social Distancing.

(You have no idea how much I want this to all be over... but then again, you probably do, for your own reasons. Me? I'm really looking forward to embracing Autumn...)

This month's PREVIEWS theme is "EURO COMICS", in which we celebrate comics and graphic novels from European and UK creators... and there are plenty! Comics are a universal language... and thanks to some US publishers, we can read and enjoy comics created in France, Belgium, Germany, and many other countries, in translated editions. We have a great selection of "EURO COMICS" listed in this issue, and we have a list of suggested titles from our product specialists to get you started. Check them out on page 202-203!

Another facet of our fan-lives that got put on hold thanks to the Covid-19 pandemic was Comic and Toy conventions... and one of Comics' biggest annual events, Free Comic Book Day. While 2020's Free Comic Book Summer was well-received by fans and retailers around the world, the "big event" feeling may have been lost when it was drawn out over the several Wednesdays during the final months of the Summer.

As you may have noticed on the spine of this issue, we have announced the re-scheduled Free Comic Book Day for 2021 to take place on Saturday, August 14! We're all hoping that by August, things will be getting back to normal, and safe for large gatherings of people. We'll be ramping up our FCBD coverage in the next few months, revealing new titles, merchandise and more! Stay tuned!

And as we continue into 2021 — and PREVIEWS #400 in January 2022! — please know that you have our sincere thanks for joining us each month, and for sticking with us for another great year of PREVIEWS issues... each fat-packed with the coolest stuff on Earth!

Your Pal @ PREVIEWS,

Marty

Detective Comics #27 CGC 7.0 Sets $1.5 Million World Record at Heritage

A copy of Detective Comics #27 CGC 7.0, which houses Batman's first appearance, sold for $1.5 million in Heritage's Comics & Comic Art Auction on November 19, 2020. That sale makes it the highest price ever realized for a Batman comic book. Batman's debut sold during the first session of Heritage's four-day auction. This sale broke a decade-old record for a Batman title, besting the sale of another copy of Detective Comics #27 CGC 8.0 that realized $1,075,000 in February 2010 – also at Heritage.

eMoviePoster Halloween Auction Exceeds $207K

eMoviePoster has completed their 21st Annual Halloween Auction, which contained 679 horror and sci-fi items of all kinds. The three-part auction ended with a total of $207,596 in sales. Individual highlights were Forbidden Planet linen-backed one-sheet for $12,888, Werewolf of London window card for $5,510, Night of the Living Dead British quad for $4,700, Invasion of the Saucer Men linen-backed one-sheet for $3,615, Star Wars style C international one-sheet for $2,960, and Jaws insert for $2,600.

Geomancers: Protectors of Earth

The Geomancers are a line of Valiant heroes tasked with protecting the Earth. They were created by Jim Starlin and Don Perlin and introduced in Solar, Man of the Atom #10 (June 1992). Since 3500 BC, the Earth has chosen men and women to defend it as Geomancers. One operates at a time, with each new one called after the previous Geomancer dies. The Geomancers can communicate with the Earth to receive psychic impressions from living organism and objects. They have healing abilities, can read minds, make objects bend to their will, and control nature and its energy.

Caesar "Assassination Coin" Sets $4.2 Million World Record

A previously unknown example of the ancient Ides of March gold coin that commemorated Julius Caesar's assassination in 44 BC sold for $4,188,393 on October 29, 2020 at Roma Numismatics Limited in London. Though there are nearly 100 silver Ides of March coins known to exist, this is only the third example in gold. Prior to changing hands in the auction, the coin had been held in a private European collection for many years.

EDGE ESSENTIALS

Pick up these books to learn more about Maria Llovet' Indie Edge style!

- Faithless Vol. 1 TP (AUG191384)
- LOUD! OGN (NOV201173)
- Luna #1 (DEC200996)

Please tell us a bit about yourself!

My name is Maria and I'm from Barcelona, Spain. I'm really passionate about telling stories and about visual narrative. My work is usually very focused on the main subjects of sex or attraction and death. My influences come deeply from alternative manga and European art, but I learn and get inspired constantly from cinema and fashion.

What are your favorite projects you've contributed to over the past decade?

Eros/Psyche (STL1709063) was my first graphic novel, originally published in 2011, and it's very dear to me as it was my first time as a complete author. 2021 is its 10th anniversary, so it's really great that this new edition — presented in full-color for the first time—is coming out precisely now!

Loud! (NOV201173) from Blackmask Comics, was a kind of an experimental project. I wanted to explore a different direction from my previous works, and to also do something more visceral. It has nearly no dialogue, and instead focuses the reader experience heavily on a visual, "cinematographic" narrative only.

Luna (DEC200996) from BOOM! Studios is my latest project, the one I'm working on right now. It usually happens to me that the project that I'm currently working is my favorite and the one I'm most passionate about!

What are you currently working on?

In the next few months I'll be working hard to complete Luna, and then I'll be back to my collaboration with Brian Azzarello for Faithless III, also with BOOM! Studios. After that, I'm having an inside battle between a couple of personal projects that are on a queue… I guess it's too early to decide. I'll have to wait 'til 2022 and see!

What fun titles are you reading?

Bastien Vives' A Sister GN (NOV200973) published by Ablaze. This is one of my favorite comics ever. I'm a big fan of Bastien's work, the way he tells the stories, his sensibility and the way he uses graphic narrative. He's my favorite author right now.

Junko Mizuno's Pure Trance (NOV191803) published by Last Gasp. Junko Mizuno's work is always a treat for me. Her unique personal style and imaginary are pop, cute, sexy and bizarre.

My Pretty Vampire GN (SEP181790) published by Fantagraphics Books. I love Katie Skelly's style, the way she mixes up her influences and the sense of fashion + cuteness infused into her characters.

USER'S GUIDE

There's a lot of awesome comics and products to look through in PREVIEWS. "A lot" might be a bit of an understatement, as each month's catalog is filled with hundreds and hundreds of pages of upcoming comics and related merchandise! It can be easy to accidentally overlook a new series you've been dying to read or a figure you've been pining to add to your shelf when there's so many things to browse. That's why we've put together this guide to help you learn how to use PREVIEWS like a pro to order the awesome titles and products you want!

Learn How to Use PREVIEWS to Order From Your Comic Shop!

WHAT EXACTLY IS PREVIEWS?

PREVIEWS is part catalog, part magazine (we call it a Mag-a-log!) of monthly listings of all of the upcoming comic titles and related products from your favorite publishers and manufacturers in one convenient place. And don't worry—PREVIEWS is organized by publisher and product type (and color-coded to boot!), to make it easy to find and flip to the section or items you're looking for. Each item listing has the information you need, such as format, size, page count, price, release date, stock or item code, and descriptive text, and nearly every listing is accompanied by artwork or images.

The most important aspect of PREVIEWS to remember is that items solicited in the catalog are anticipated to ship 2-3 months later (or more). For example, if you found a comic you wanted in the May issue of PREVIEWS, you can expect to see it turn up in your local comic shop in July. The catalog can be a great resource for figuring out where your favorite comic series is going, or for discovering new ones that you'll want to add to your library—not to mention all the other awesome products!

HOW DO I ORDER FROM PREVIEWS?

When you've picked out all of the items you want, you can fill out the Short Order Form included in your copy of PREVIEWS and submit it to your local comic shop. You can also ask your friendly neighborhood retailer about obtaining a Customer Order Form, a booklet that contains a complete listing of all the items made available for that month. These forms make pre-ordering your comics and products a breeze and can help your local comic shop decide what to stock in the store for other customers, too! Be sure to also ask your retailer about their pullbox or subscription service. Once you've submitted your order, you can sit back and relax, or try to contain your excitement until your comics and merchandise arrive!

IN MARVEL COMICS' ALIEN, EVERYONE WILL HEAR YOU SCREAM

In the depths of space, humanity will find unimaginable terrors as the Alien franchise comes to Marvel Comics this March in an all-new ongoing Alien series from Phillip Kennedy Johnson and Salvador Larroca!

Centuries from now, Gabriel Cruz was a loyal mercenary employed by Weyland-Yutani — until he had an encounter with a xenomorph out on the interstellar frontier and barely escaped with his life. Now retired, he heads back into space, an android at his side, when his estranged son is endangered, and the mercenary life he thought he'd put behind him will return with a vengeance. Cruz will face the unstoppable, inhuman alien Xenomorphs once more.

Ridley Scott's 1979 film Alien was a groundbreaking work of science-fiction horror. Two long-time fans of the franchise, writer Phillip Kennedy Johnson (Empyre: Captain America) and artist Salvador Larroca (Darth Vader), take readers back into the world of the films with a bold take on the concept. Johnson, whose work on Marvel Zombies Resurrection, fused horror with comic storytelling, and Larroca, an artist adept at character, action, and science-fiction, promise to make Alien a must-read for both long-time fans of the film and comics readers who have never picked up an Alien comic before. Filled with action, heroism, human drama, dread, and, yes, extraterrestrial carnage, Alien will remind readers that the universe is implacably hostile to humanity and terrors lurk behind every shadow.

In space, no one can hear you scream, but your neighbors certainly will when you read Johnson and Larroca's Alien #1 from Marvel Comics this March!

ENTER A WORLD OF MONSTERS AND EVERLASTING DARKNESS IN IMAGE COMICS' NOCTERRA

Ten years ago, all natural light ceased and the Earth was plugned into eternal darkness. Ten years ago, the everlasting night became filled with monstrous creatures as life itself succumbed to the darkness. Ten years ago, artificial light became a precious resource and humanity huddled into brightly lit havens. And some venture out into the darkness to keep civilization moving and hope alive. This is the world of Nocterra, the new Image Comics series from comic legends Scott Snyder and Tony S. Daniel. One person who keeps civilization moving is Valentine Riggs, a woman who has made her living in the darkened wastelands, ferrying survivors through the eternal night of monsters in her eighteen wheeler and fighting the monsters that live there. Look for Synder and Daniel's Nocterra this March!

Baltimore fell in his battle against evil, and with evil gathering once more and the Nazis on the move across Europe as World War II begins, Sofia will take up the sword to stem the tide of evil in Mike Mignola, Christopher Golden, and Bridgit Connell's Lady Baltimore from Dark Horse Comics, a brand-new series that continues Mignola and Golden's vampire saga that began in the Lord Baltimore novel and comics. Studios takes the Firefly story twenty years into the future with Firefly: Brand New 'Verse, introducing fans to a whole new crew of misfits and ne'er-do-wells on the edge of the frontier, flying the same old ship, the Firefly-class hauler Serenity. Emma, the daughter of Zoe and Wash, is the captain, and she has a lot to prove to her mother — and herself. ## CLAUDIA LEONARDI AND ANDREA IZZO

What have you enjoyed most about creating the artwork for this comic series?
C & A: We both enjoy to be able to work with the characters we loved so much in the game and give our interpretation of them.

Without any spoilers can you tell us what has been your favourite moment to draw from the series so far?
A: There are too many scenes that I loved colouring! The most recent one is the girls in Sedona Red Rock park.

How do you think the characters have changed over the course of the comic? Do you think a particular character has changed more than others?
C: Max is the one that changed the most. She goes through a lot to find herself, to learn about her power and it's consequences. I think Emma is doing a great job portraying this growth.

What is your favourite part of the artwork process?
C: Reading the script and imagining the scenes and the panels is exciting. Then it gets difficult when I have to actually draw it!

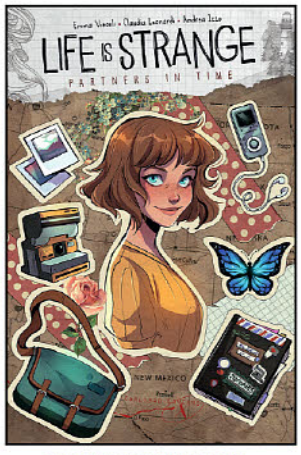

A: Like Claudia, it's the part when, reading the script, I can start to imagine the atmosphere and the dominant colours of the scenes.

What has it been like working with artist Emma Vieceli? Do you have a particular part of the plot from the first series that sticks in your mind?
C & A: Working with Emma has been great! We work in synergy, she leaves a lot of space to our imagination to create the scenes.
The flickers in Dust: we loved the sense of instability they gave to the reality Max was living.

What are you most looking forward to for the future of the Life Is Strange comic?
C: I'm looking forward to drawing (and reading) what Emma has planned for the end of max's journey. I already know where we are heading, but getting there will be a great experience!

WHEN I WAS ADOPTED, AND I FINALLY HAD THE SURGERY, THE FIRST THING I DID UPON OPENING MY EYES WAS CRY. MY ADOPTED FAMILY CRIED TOO, FOR JOY.
BUT ME, I WAS CRYING FOR A DIFFERENT REASON. I WAS HAPPY, OF COURSE. BUT, I CRIED OUT OF FEAR.
FEAR THAT THE FINGERS WERE STILL THERE SOMEWHERE, AND THAT IT WAS ONLY A MATTER OF TIME BEFORE THEY'D RETURN TO COVER THE WORLD AGAIN, BUT WORSE THIS TIME.

SHELTER
PHAPH
Years spent away from my family.
Years spent in crowds.
That eyeball guy was right... people are possessed at random by this virus. My proximity to them seems to trigger the transformation.
I don't know why his message was so brief, or why I've heard nothing since. I don't know when this will all be over...
But the threat remains.
And it's a big city...
MA'AM...
MA'AM... PLEASE.
STEP AWAY FROM THE BOY, PLEASE...

DOOM
So no days off.

GAH!
CRUNCH!
TAKE THIS BOY TO THE SHELTER'S MEDIC.
I THINK HE'S JUST UNCONSCIOUS.
GET TO SAFETY NOW!

1985 Was a Bad Year
When I think of the mid-80s, I mostly think of all the bad drugs...
...
And music I never thought we'd be stuck listening to for the rest of our lives.
Bands with big hair and loud keyboards.
Drum machines.
Depeche Mode, Duran Duran... The music of cocaine and empty promises.
...

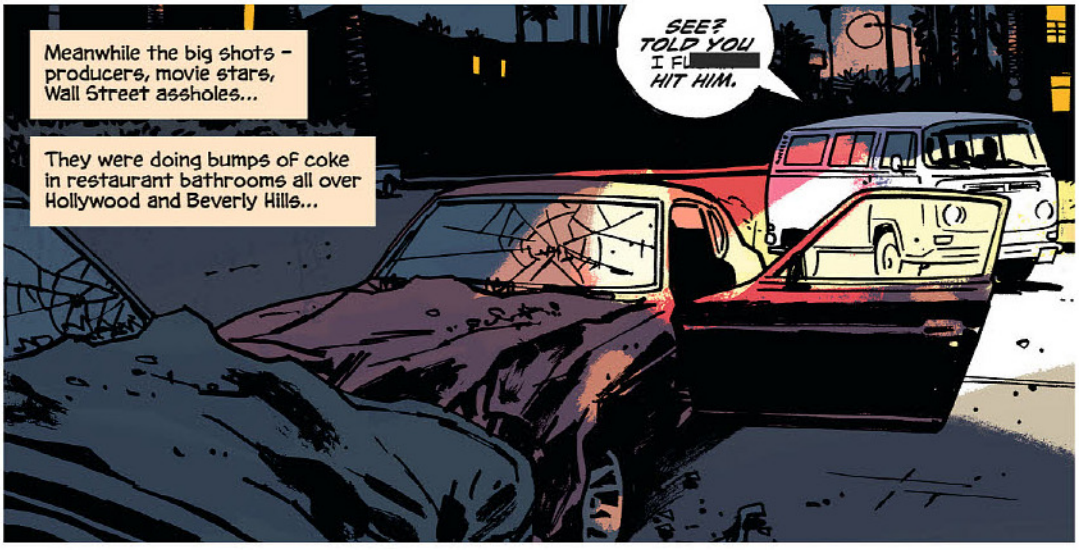

It was an ugly time for the fashion of pop culture...
And an uglier time for the world around it.

OKAY... THIS IS [redacted]..
WHAT'RE YOU GONNA DO NOW, IDIOT?

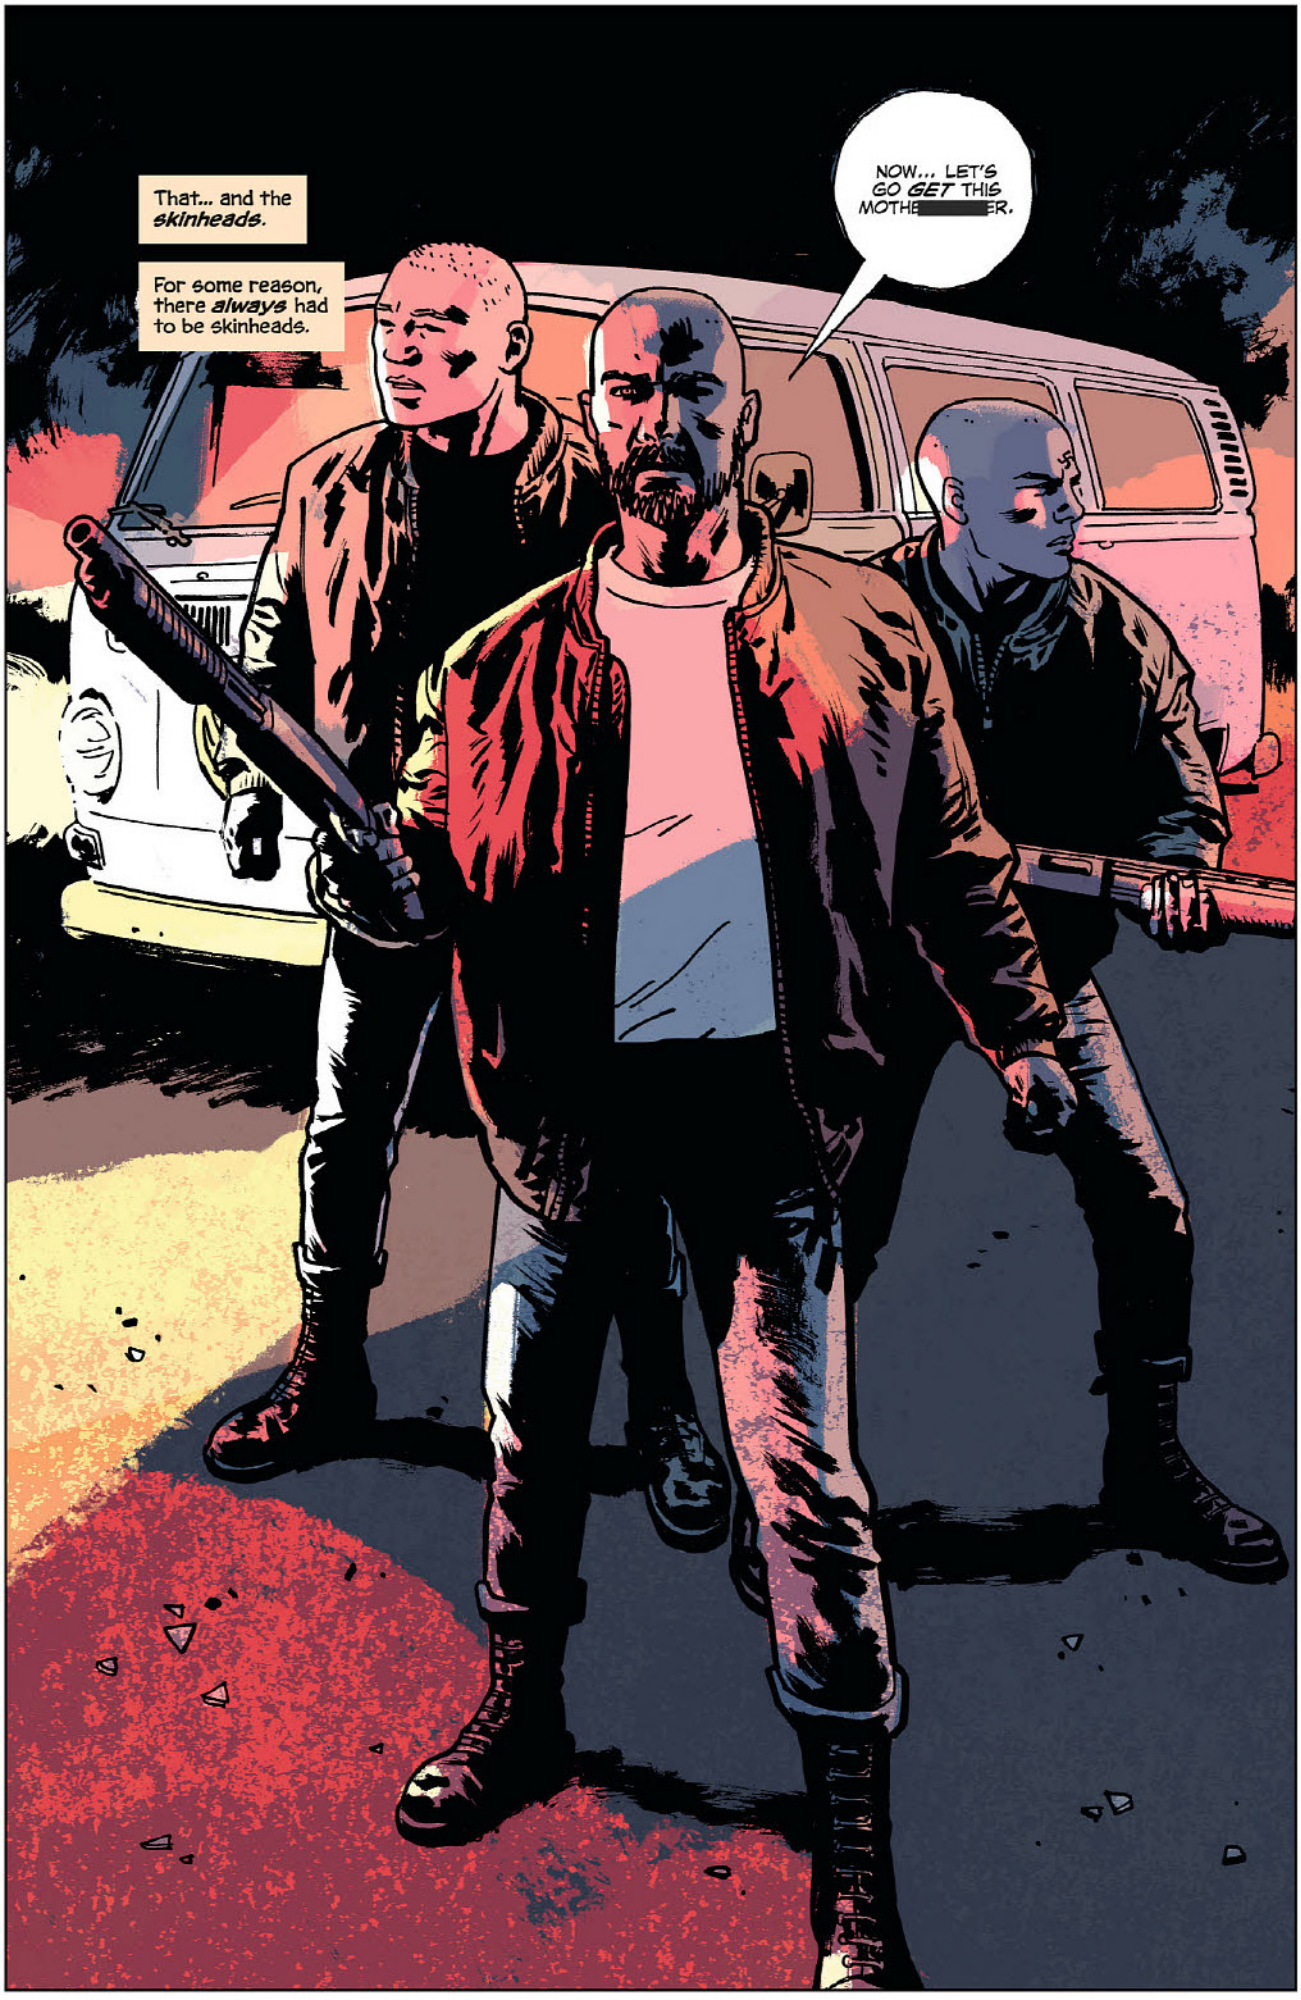

On my side of town, you'd see kids wasting away on the streets...
Covered in that awful rash that speed-freaks got...
Pulling out their own hair.

And in South L.A. crack was still destroying everything in its path.

Meanwhile the big shots – producers, movie stars, Wall Street assholes...
They were doing bumps of coke in restaurant bathrooms all over Hollywood and Beverly Hills...
SEE? TOLD YOU I FU[redacted] HIT HIM.

Laughing, empty-eyed, a slight sheen of desperation and sweat.
DON'T BRAG ABOUT IT, BENNIE...

That's a lot of what I remember about 1985...
IF YOU WERE DOING YOUR JOB RIGHT...
HE NEVER WOULDA GOT TO HIS CAR.

That... and the skinheads.
For some reason, there always had to be skinheads.
NOW... LET'S GO GET THIS MOTHE[redacted]ER.

Asakusa loves to design worlds. Mizusaki loves to animate. Kanamori loves to make money! And at Shibahama High, they call them Eizouken—a three-girl club determined to produce their own spectacular science fiction anime! But with no budget from their school and a leaky warehouse for a studio, Eizouken is going to have to work hard and use their imagination . . . the one thing they've got plenty of!

Asakusa wants to create "the greatest world" in anime through her imaginative images . . . but there's so much more to a world than pictures, so now the Eizouken trio has become a quartet as their newest recruit, Doumeki, sole member of Shibahama High's Sound Club, leads them on a new adventure into the wild to harvest ambient audio! And even as Kanamori tries to find a route for them through the minefield of social media, Mizusaki and Asakusa are going to have to meet the fans in person at a local convention . . .

Three ordinary weirdos, one recurring dream. The acclaimed minds behind The Three Rooms in Valerie's Head return with a whimsical and ambitious portrait of human connection in the age of digital fragmentation.

You meet the strangest people on the internet.

Gideon is a lonely I.T. developer, obsessed by a comic book from childhood called Revenge of the Ghoulors, and secretly in love with his co-worker Lisa. Heidi works at home in her pyjamas, makes a lot of soup, and wishes she had time for friends. Peter is a 56-year-old divorcee who delivers classic cars, has a built-in toaster, and thinks a lot about the past.

These three people seem unconnected, yet they share something—they each have the same recurring dream. And when a new web service is introduced that helps people share their dreams, what will happen when the three of them find out about each other? Just what is it that links these three lonely souls?

Nimbly weaving together multiple storylines (including extracts from Gideon's comic book, Revenge of the Ghoulors), Dan Berry and David Gaffney present Rivers: a quirky examination of how events from the past can bind people together forever, and a surprising reunion between people who've never met.

The unholy alliance you prayed would never happen!

For countless generations, the fight between good and evil has been fought, as much behind the scenes as in plain view. Unbeknownst to the world at large, one force has stood as a safeguard against the potential triumph of evil and the unleashing of the apocalypse: The 36. Now, someone is after them, a creature of evil known as Purgatori, and the only thing standing in her way is Vampirella.

So with all of existence hanging in the balance, what could possibly bring these two enemies to join forces? Hint: Whatever it is, it must be really bad.

RAY FAWKES BITES INTO HIS STORY OF THESE TWO VAMPIRIC VIXENS

Ray, with Constantine, Justice League Dark, Gotham by Midnight, and more in your resume, should fans expect a splash of horror as these two very different vampires tangle together?

Absolutely! I do love the creepy side of things, and there's plenty of it to get into with Vampirella and Purgatori! I mean... two vampires with very, uh, destructive appetites. Yeah, things are going to get very dark.

A core part of this series is the idea of the 36 Tzadikim Nistarim, an idea rooted in Judaism. For those unfamiliar, can you explain the concept and how you'll be pulling it into this story of two characters who have often have touches of religious imagery and themes?

The 36 (sometimes referred to as the L-V) are said to be truly good people scattered around the world - people who are unaware of their importance, because their goodness actually justifies the existence of all of humanity to God and protects us from Old Testament-style wrath. They're always there, quietly being their kind, humble selves, and all the rest of us in our billions are allowed to live on because of them. Vampirella and Purgatori are going to find reason to seek out and get involved with the 36. There's no way that can lead to trouble though, right? It should be fine. It's going to be fine.

Hailing from the Chaos! universe, Purgatori is not necessarily the nicest demonic vampire goddess out there. What's your take on this complicated antihero or sometimes outright villain of a character? Will fans get any surprises of other Chaos! characters?

Purgatori has always been a character who kind of blows my mind - because of the way she drains the totality of her victims - not just their life force, but their memories and collective abilities too - which actually makes her much, much more horrible than any other vampire. I find her fascinating for that reason - and the fact that she's so terrible and can still sometimes do some good... well, there's rich ground for horror there. The path she walks cuts a bloody hole through the history and potential of humanity, and she always wants more.

And yeah - there are Chaos! surprises in the wings. But I can't say anything about them because, of course, I want them to be surprises. I'll just say: Yes!

And how about the 50-year-old icon of Vampirella? How were you introduced to the character and are you pulling ideas from other creators in her history, or from vampire stories outside of her enchanting pages?

Like many comics fans - and horror fans - I've fostered a love for Vampirella for a long time! I was reading Vampirella comics way back when, in the stone ages when I was probably too young to be reading stories that were so bloody and so sexy. Of course, I'll be looking at her history, and you can bet I'll be mashing in concepts from other vampire tales - how can I resist? They've been favourites of mine for many years, and I'm sure they influence everything I write, not just this book.

You're working with artist Alvaro Sarraseca here. How has it been seeing his pages roll in depicting your story? Especially as a multi-talented creator with artistic chops yourself.

I always love seeing how my scripts are interpreted by great artists, and Alvaro is no exception - he's truly incredible, and his work is going to make me look so much better than I am!

This series marks the first major meeting of these two powerful women in Dynamite's canon. We're sure they will have plenty of differences in this series, but can you foresee telling future tales of either and how could their complicated relationship evolve?

Differences add the spice to any relationship! I can clearly foresee how the two of them might want to meet again, and what they might want to do to each other, er... I mean with each other. They'd be such killer friends! Assuming they both survive this first meeting, that is. When you're dealing with these two, never assume anyone is safe.

Let's kick off with the Bond classic 101 rapid-fire questions. Favorite book? Favorite film? Favorite actor? Favorite bond girl?

Favorite book is THUNDERBALL, but that may be prejudiced by the fact that I just reread it after a long interval. Favorite film, and I freely admit this is entirely because it's the first one I ever saw and it blew my little kid mind, is MOONRAKER. When I see it again, even as an adult, even with the space disco outfits, I'm that little kid again. Favorite Bond actor is, big surprise, Connery, but I am a fan of all of them. Daniel Craig is great. My favorite Bond girl is probably Ursula Andress, but I also quite like Famke Janssen. In fact, when I went to film school, she was supposed to be part of my screenwriting class, but she ended up getting that role and not attending after all. And that is my degree of separation from James Bond...until now.

What do you think makes Bond such a timeless character and so compelling to tackle as a writer?

The spy/secret agent is an archetype that goes back to ancient times...the job itself is so inherently full of excitement and suspense, it's no surprise that it's lasted. What makes Bond so compelling is what Ian Fleming brought to the character...a combination of worldliness, determination and charisma joined with an almost melancholy feeling of being separate...from everyone and everything. Bond is the classic "man on the wall"...he knows, as few do, how dangerous the world really is, and he has to do whatever it takes to keep the threats away from the rest of us. So he's always set apart. It's a fascinating mix to play with.

One of the working titles for this new series was "SPECTRE Civil War." Can you break down how this series begins and what has Bond smack in the middle of it all?

Without getting too much into spoiler territory, there's a schism within the resurgent worldwide criminal/spy/terrorist organization known as SPECTRE. The top man, Ernst Stavro Blofeld, is being challenged by an upstart American member of their ruling council, Titania Jones. The other members of the council are staying neutral, letting the two of them and their people fight it out. It's at a bit of a stalemate...the two of them are in different countries and their operatives are all known to each other. So Blofeld sets about recruiting an X factor, a wild card, to take Titania out for him...and that wild card is James Bond. But Bond would never voluntarily work for SPECTRE...so Blofeld has to make a "persuasive argument." That's about all I can say without spoiling too much!

Blofeld is one of the most iconic and influential villains in popular culture. How are you approaching his portrayal in this series, as well as his relationship with Bond?

It's true, Blofeld as seen in the movies pretty much defines the arch-villain. But the version we're working with is Blofeld as described in his first appearance, which was the THUNDERBALL novel. Those who are only familiar with the film versions might be a bit surprised by how he's depicted in Fleming's original vision. He's a physically huge and powerful man, a former competitive weightlifter, with a bit of added fat as he enters middle age, but not at all diminished... he can command other powerful people with his presence, is cultured but not afraid to get his hands dirty, and is not someone you'd want to mess with. He's somewhat reminiscent of Wilson Fisk, the Kingpin, who I wrote in the Daredevil TV show, although of course there are differences. But if I'm honest I prefer the novel version to the film version. It's awesome to have a villain who is a credible physical threat to Bond.

Can readers expect to see any other classic characters or hallmarks of the series like the cars and gadgets? How about any new ingredients being added to the pot?

It's not a Bond series without M and Moneypenny, and CIA Agent Felix Leiter will have a significant role to play. We're not going to get quite to the MOONRAKER level of gadgetry, but yes, I definitely have some things in mind...there are a few exciting set pieces when Luca and the art team will really get to cut loose!

Your artist collaborator, Luca Casalanguida, returns to service following Hammerhead, Kill Chain, and contributions to both The Body and Reflections of Death [all available now as graphic novels]. How excited are you to see your scripts brought to life by him and the rest of the creative team?

VERY excited. In fact, I mentioned to Matt that I am a fan of what Luca has done with Bond and that I hoped we could get him back for this series...and luckily it worked out! His style is perfect...combining noir, high-octane action, and excellent character work. I couldn't be more excited to see what he and the rest of the team delivers!

Comic Books are an all-American creation dating back to the newspaper strips of the early 20th century, and the comic books that followed in their footsteps. And as America traveled out into the world, either during war time or during periods of peace, commerce and outreach to other nations, our representatives brought bits of the United States with them to these other countries… snacks, music, fashion, and the art of comic book storytelling.

The concept of telling stories through consecutive narrative images caught on around the world, and in many countries their own comics industry grew to impressive proportions (looking at you, Japanese Manga!). Today, comic books and graphic novels are produced around the world, and many of these companies and their creators export their works to the United States to a receptive audience, eager to consume comics from a foreign land.

This month, PREVIEWS celebrates the Language of Comic Books with our EURO COMICS theme, highlighting great new and classic comics and graphics novels from Europe and the UK. Our product specialists, working with a host of publishers, have added many great graphic novels from European and UK creators throughout this issue. Start here with these suggested titles, then look for our EURO COMICS icon throughout this issue for more great picks!

The early 1930's: The height of the Great Depression and beginning of the Dust Bowl. Silvano Luna Del Rio works as a postman in Buttar, Texas. Reeling from a tragic past, with only a gun and a Western novel to his name, Silvano sets out to take back from the country that took so much from him by robbing the first skyscraper West of the Mississippi. But acts of retribution are never as simple as they seem, as his target is home to an eccentric fraternal brotherhood hiding their own dark secrets.

By Silvano's side is an old west novel featuring famed gunslinger Solomon Eaton. As both stories unfold simultaneously, in true UNDONE BY BLOOD fashion, the mythic Western informs choices in reality, for better or worse.

From the minds of Lonnie Nadler and Zac Thompson (The Dregs, X-Men, HER INFERNAL DESCENT) and artist Sami Kivelä (Abbott, Machine Gun Wizards) comes the next story in the critically acclaimed neo-western series that depicts the hard truths of seeking vengeance in the real world.

Meet the Haskins, a seemingly normal suburban family, as they prepare for the macabre holiday known as "Dead Day" – when the deceased rise from the grave from sunset to sunrise. Some come back to reunite with family and friends, others for one last night of debauchery, still others with only one thing on their decomposing mind: revenge.

From writer Ryan Parrott (OBERON, VOLITION, Power Rangers) and artist Evgeniy Bornyakov (DESCENDENT, YOU ARE OBSOLETE) comes an unnerving tale of existential horror with grave consequences. This volume contains issues #1-5.

RED ROCK BABY CANDY

By Shira Spector

$29.99 / HC / 216 pages / FC / 8" × 12"

Red Rock Baby Candy contains the most revolutionary visual storytelling since Emil Ferris's My Favorite Thing is Monsters. In a slow-motion explosion of colors, Shira Spector paints a vivid portrait of her struggle to get pregnant, her father's cancer diagnosis and eventual death, and her recollections of past relationships with her parents and her partner.

"Shira Spector has created an ecstatic book about a life lived deeply, fully, and with the extreme bravery we must all have if we want to truly love and be loved."

— Eleanor Davis, How To Be Happy

"Shira Spector's deeply moving graphic memoir is about love and sorrow, and the wondrousness of being alive despite everything. The inventive combination of text and drawing works perfectly to draw the reader in."

— Roz Chast, Can't We Talk About Something More Pleasant?

A JUNIOR LIBRARY GUILD GOLD STANDARD SELECTION

THE THUD

By Mikael Ross

$16.99 /SC / 128 pgs / FC / 8" × 10"

This graphic novel is told entirely from a developmentally impaired boy's perspective. Noel had always lived with his mother until one day tragedy strikes and he finds himself alone for the first time. After being told that he can't stay in his apartment anymore, he is taken to a village in Germany called Neuerkerode that is operated by people with mental disabilities. The author spent two years living there and getting to know its townsfolk and the result is this stunning and empathetic graphic novel.

I NEVER PROMISED YOU A ROSE GARDEN

By Mannie Murphy

$24.99 / HC / 232 pgs / FC / 7" × 9"

Set in Portland Oregon, this story brilliantly weaves the movies of Gus van Sant and 1990s alternative culture with two centuries of the Pacific Northwest's shameful history as a hotbed for white nationalism: from the Whitman massacre in 1847; to the Ku Klux Klan's role in Portland's city planning; to the treatment of African Americans displaced in the 1948 Vanport flood; and through the 2014 armed standoff with Cliven Bundy's cattle ranch. The other protagonist in this story is the author herself, a gender queer kid trying to process all of this.

NEW FROM FANTAGRAPHICS UNDERGROUND!

JOE FRANK: ASCENT

By Joe Frank and Jason Novak

$25.00 / SC / 232 pgs / One color / 6.25" × 9"

Joe Frank is one of the greatest radio dramatists who ever worked in the medium. His programs, which he wrote and voiced ran from 1978 to 2018, attracting a huge following, including Francis Coppola ("I couldn't believe the originality and sheer brilliance of what I was hearing") and Charlie Kaufman ("His shows were hypnotic, psychotic, neurotic, sad, terrifying, and some of the funniest stuff I have ever heard anywhere.") Jason Novak, author of Et Tu, Brute, has lovingly adapted six of Frank's most memorable stories into comics form, an introduction to those who have never heard Frank, and an aesthetic accompaniment to those who have.

Looking Back at Overstreet #46

Even before her incredibly popular tenure on Harley Quinn, Amanda Conner's stints on Power Girl and in Wednesday Comics had elevated her to superstar status. Her cover for The Overstreet Comic Book Price Guide #41 had proven popular with new fans and established collectors alike, so she was a logical choice when the decision was made to have the two covers of The Overstreet Comic Book Price Guide #46 link up to form one larger image.

"We had the idea of doing covers that joined up a few years early. That never really came together, but it proved to be worth the wait. The results by Amanda Conner, colorist Paul Mounts, and our own Mark Huesman on production were amazing," said Gemstone's J.C. Vaughn, "Mark's contributions were subtle, but critical."

Because there are slightly different specs for the hardcover and soft cover editions, Conner had to draw a bit more on the right edge of the Power Girl cover and on the left edge (spine side) of the Harley Quinn cover. Huesman's job was to make both the hardcover and soft cover editions line up seamlessly despite the differences.

The difference that's easiest to notice is that the spiral cord between the plunger (on the Harley Quinn cover) and the dynamite (on the Power Girl cover) is longer on the hardcovers.

DO NOT PET: A SERVICE DOG'S GRAPHIC TAIL

(W) Joe Biel (A) Gerta Oparaku

Throughout human history, dogs have performed service tasks for us. Some of the earliest documented cases occurred during the First World War, when, in the U.K. and Germany, guide dogs helped people with disabilities live fuller lives. Do Not Pet: A Service Dog's Graphic Tail follows the story of one such service dog, Ruby, who gave the author Joe Biel mobility, health, and companionship through the most difficult years of his life. This comic details their personal struggles with public awareness and accommodation and celebrates their remarkable interspecies bond. (STL176857) Item has been previously solicited in New to Order.

32pgs, B&W ..... $4.95

DO NOT PET: HOW DISABILITY ACTIVISTS BROUGHT RIGHTS TO THE UNITED STATES

(W) Joe Biel (A) Gerta Oparaku

Service dogs, wheelchair-accessible buildings, and protection against being fired due to a disability-these basic rights are all a result of the American Disabilities Act, a U.S. federal law passed in 1990. Even though 1 in 4 people in this country have a disability, it took many years of street-level activism and political advocacy to bring the ADA and its precursors into existence. The second, standalone issue of Do Not Pet is the story of that fight in graphic form, introducing the disability rights movement's boldest leaders of the 70s and 80s, as well as some of the everyday people who joined the cause and benefited from the results. (STL176860) Item has been previously solicited in New to Order.

The story juxtaposes Naguset's personal and political coming-of-age in her loving family home with Kropotkin's rocky upbringing in a princely palace. These two stories of eventful lives and bold hearts are interwoven with Kropotkin's theories of freedom, Mi'kmaq vocabulary and social history, and an uplifting punk soundtrack, creating a unique reading experience bound to inspire readers to think in new ways about the issues of our time. ### BUBBLES & GONDOLA HC
(W/A/CA) Renaud Dillies
On a background of Django Reinhardt, this jewel of poetic fantasy is a fairy tale for all ages with spot on observations about life. Charlie is a mouse who's trying to write but has a block. Writing is a solitary endeavor. A bird named Solitude comes to visit him to keep him company. We're never sure he actually exists but in Charlie's mind, yet he brings him out into the world, dares him to experience the unknown, unblocking his little existence. A drama about the blank page for Charlie who so wants to make the world more beautiful with his writing, we are transported into a tender and moving tale with a twinge of lyrical melancholy yet sweet, warm and ultimately elevating. Rainbow has been searching for her sister, Jonna, for a year. The last time she saw Jonna was also the first time she saw one of the monsters that now roam the planet. They're big, ugly, and dangerous creatures, driving humanity to the brink of extinction. Though there isn't much hope for survival out in the wild, Rainbow knows that her sister is out there somewhere—and she'll do anything to find her.

Don't miss the brand-new, all-original, action-packed series co-written and drawn by Eisner Award-winner Chris Samnee! Chris is joined for his very first fully creator-owned book by co-writer Laura Samnee and frequent coloring collaborator Matthew Wilson! Jonna and the Unpossible Monsters is the all-ages adventure of a lifetime!

AN INTERVIEW WITH THE CREATORS

CHRIS SAMNEE AND LAURA SAMNEE

Katie Sainz (Oni's Marketing Manager):* How did Jonna and the Unpossible Monsters come to be?

Chris Samnee: This story, or parts of it, had been rattling around in my head for years. I'd come up with good bits and tell them to our daughters at bedtime, since they're always the first audience with this stuff, but Laura has managed to help steer this into being an actual story with emotion, and depth, and so much more than just a monster punch-'em-up. There have been multiple times I've written us into a corner, and she always manages to find a way to make it better than what I started with.

Laura Samnee: Yeah, Jonna really started as Chris's thing! I watched him poke around on it for years; he'd show me a design or he would tell me something about the story. When it was time to put the pitch together, I was helping him lay out the beats, and we found that soon I was contributing story and character ideas to really flesh things out, so it just evolved into us cowriting. We are used to doing things as a team, and writing Jonna together really felt like a natural extension of how we already work.

KS: Jonna, the younger of the sisters, is fearless and gifted with the ability to deliver monster-crushing punches! Without spoiling anything, can you tell us more about her ability?

LS: Well, we can say that she certainly has a superhuman strength and is uniquely suited to fight these giant monsters. How she ended up with those abilities will eventually be revealed!

KS: Tell us more about the monster-filled world this book is set in! Do you have any favorite monster creations?

CS: The impetus of this series was getting to do for a living what I grew up doing for fun—something I've done surprisingly little of in superhero comics—draw monsters!

It's hard to pick a favorite, as I tried to give each one something that'd make me excited to put them on the page. Each of the monsters is based on a real animal and is then twisted and contorted and combined with other animal bits until we have our monster.

If you were to twist my arm to pick a favorite monster, I'd probably go with the one I've just been calling Red, the first "Unpossible" monster we see in issue #1. Its design takes cues from Hanna Barbera-style pterodactyls and one particularly unappealing chicken that my parents had when I was a kid—but with a beak full of sharp teeth!

A PROTECTIVE BIG SISTER,
Rainbow* has been searching for Jonna for over a year. She carefully plans each step on her journey toward reuniting with her family and looks forward to the day they'll all be safe together once again.

DON'T LET HER SIZE FOOL YOU!
Jonna* is the strongest girl alive and holds a bit of a grudge against the giant monsters that have made her world their own. If a monster threatens her, she won't hesitate to lay them out with a single punch.

ONE YEAR LATER

ANY LUCK, RAINBOW?

HAVE YOU SEEN THIS GIRL AROUND?
NO, SORRY.

LETTERED BY: CRANK!

A perfect way to get all your people on the same page with ease and humor!

Archie, a snarky genderqueer artist, is tired of people not understanding gender neutral pronouns. Tristan, a cisgender dude, is looking for an easy way to introduce gender neutral pronouns to his increasingly diverse workplace. The longtime best friends team up in this short and fun comic guide that explains what pronouns are, why they matter, and how to use them. They also include what to do if you make a mistake, and some tips and tricks for those who identify outside of the binary to keep themselves safe in this binary-centric world. A quick and easy resource for people who use they/them pronouns and people who want to learn more!

Curious about using gender neutral language in your everyday life?

Try these quick & easy suggestions!

1. The only 100% accurate way to know if you're using the right pronouns for someone is to ask them!

If you don't know someone's pronouns, you can use they/them until you do.
Here's some suggestions on how to ask:

"Hi, I'm _____ and I use _____ pronouns, what about you?"

"What pronouns do you all use?"

"Let's all go around and say our names and pronouns."

2. Swap out common gendered language!

Here are some easy substitutions:

| GENDERED | NON-GENDERED |
|---|---|
| Ladies/Gentlemen | Folks, Guests, Y'all |
| Men and Women | You all, Friends |
| Guys/Gals | Everyone, Anyone |
| The lady in that cool wolf shirt | The person in that cool wolf shirt |

3. Don't make it a big deal when you mess up someone's pronouns!

Mistakes happen. Just apologize and move on.
Here are some examples:

"Oops, I'm sorry!"
(then carry on with whatever you were saying, but with the correct pronouns)

"I'm sorry, I'm still learning, but I'm going to get better. Please correct me if I mess up again."
(then carry on with whatever you were saying, but with the correct pronouns)

ORWELL GN

(W/A) Pierre Christin

George Orwell's most celebrated work, 1984, and the prescient vision it contains of a society governed by Big Brother predates the constant monitoring of people and data we are familiar with today by almost 70 years. But his life was every bit as fascinating and forward-looking as his books. Orwell studied at Eton, joined the police in Burma, fought in the Spanish Civil War, fiercely opposed Stalinism, and lived in London's slums while working as a journalist. Pierre Christin's Orwell offers readers an intimate yet definitive portrait of our greatest political writer. (STL162133) (C: 0-1-0)

New Edition With 16 Extra Pages!

Marvel Comics in the 1970s covers Marvel's final historical phase: the twilight years of the 1970s, after the initial '60s wave of popularity pushed the company to the forefront of the comics industry, and made many of its characters household names. This full decade of pop-culture history saw Stan Lee's role as writer diminish as he ascended to Publisher, the stunning departure of Jack Kirby to DC (and his later return to Marvel), the rise of Roy Thomas as editor (and eventual Editor In Chief), and the introduction of a new wave of writers and artists who would expand the boundaries of comics beyond super-heroes, while planting the seeds for the company's eventual self-destruction. Don't be satisfied with only half the story! Find out why Marvel was once hailed as The House of Ideas! (STL179148) (C: 0-1-1)

REED CRANDALL: ILLUSTRATOR OF COMICS SC

New Softcover Edition! From the 1940s to the '70s, Reed Crandall brought a unique and masterful style to American comic art. Using an illustrator's approach on everything he touched, Crandall gained a reputation as the "artist's artist" through his skillful interpretations of Golden Age super-heroes Doll Man, The Ray, and Blackhawk (his signature character); horror and sci-fi for the legendary EC Comics line; Warren Publishing's Creepy, Eerie, and Blazing Combat; the THUNDER Agents and Edgar Rice Burroughs characters; and even Flash Gordon for King Features. Comic art historian Roger Hill has compiled a complete and extensive history of Crandall's life and career, from his early years and major successes, through his tragic decline and passing in 1982. ## MATT BAKER: THE ART OF GLAMOUR HC

In the early 1940s, Matt Baker became of one the earliest African-American comic book artists. But it wasn't the color of his skin which made him such a significant figure in the history of the medium. Imagine Dave Stevens or Adam Hughes working in the '40s, drawing a new story every month, and you'll have a good idea of Matt Baker's place in the industry throughout his career. Yet few of today's comic book fans know of the artist or his work, because he died in 1959 at the young age of 38, just as the Silver Age of Comics was bringing in a new generation of readers. # TOY TALK: JAMES MUSCARELLO

Toys, Statues and other collectibles don't just magically appear on store shelves. A lot of work goes into the concept, design, sculpting and final production of these items, and many of the people who work behind-the-scenes with companies like Diamond Select, DC Collectibles and Gentle Giant, among others, remain mostly unknown to their appreciative audience: the final consumer.

With Toy Talk, we hope to introduce you to the artisans behind some of your favorite collectibles, and to let them enjoy their well-deserved moment in the spotlight!

This month, we welcome Diamond Select Toys Sculptor, JAMES MUSCARELLO...

PREVIEWS: How did you get into sculpting in the Toys and Collectibles industry?

James Muscarello: I was working as a bookseller and sculpting at home in my spare time with my little boxes of Sculpey. A friend of mine was trying to launch an animated show and asked if I could sculpt some character maquettes to help sell the show. Based on the success of those sculpts, I got an interview at a toy company… and woohoo!

PREVIEWS: What are some of your favorite types of projects you get to work on?

James Muscarello: I am a huge fan of Batman: The Animated Series, so the Diamond Select figures are right at the top of the list! Disney figures, Avengers, and Ninja Turtles are always fun.

PREVIEWS: What were some of the most important aspects of the design you wanted to capture when sculpting the Batman: The Animated Series Batarang Bust?

James Muscarello: It has to be on model, that's priority one. Even though it's an animated character, it should retain some sense of real anatomy, but from there you can push it to give it a more dynamic gesture from all sides, that's important too. And it's a sculpture not a drawing, so it has to look good from every angle. Plus, Batman means business, so he should have a sense of determination.

PREVIEWS: Having worked on other projects for DST, which one were you most proud of when you saw the final piece?

James Muscarello: Definitely, the Clayface bust. He was so much sloppy, gooey fun to sculpt! Also, the Green Arrow bust and the Batgirl figure. Those are the ones I'm happy with. But the one that I really loved was the animated Dark Knight Comic-Con Exclusive bust. I didn't know they were going to do a mud-covered variant and when I saw the final product at the show, I was downright giddy!

PREVIEWS: Is there a classic toy you would love to get a chance to recreate using today's technology?

James Muscarello: I would have to say the 19" Shogun Godzilla from Mattel. He was one of my all-time favorites! He had this vinyl flame-tongue that stuck out like a snake and it would be so cool to replace that with a light-up mouth and light up his whole spine. Plus, with digital, the amount of detail you could put into the skin texture would be fun to do. It would have to be Godzilla from the '60s and '70s. My other favorite from when I was a kid was the rubber glow-in-the-dark Suckerman figure from Mattel. But I don't see how I could improve upon him!

SPAWN JOINS THE BATTLE AGAINST GENGHIS KHAN WITH MCFARLANE TOYS' NEW FIGURE

Medieval China was beset by attacks from the Mongols, led by Genghis Khan, on their northern border. The Southern Song dynasty had reigned in the kingdom for three hundred years, but its power was waning, and the provinces were ruled by vicious governors. One such governor, Zheng Li, took savage pleasure in having a mute young man, Chenglei, tortured to death for his amusement. After his death, Chenglei returned from hell itself with the power of the Hellspawn, bent on vengeance on those who had mistreated him in life. Based on the character as seen in Spawn #165, Chenglei, the Mandarin Spawn, comes to life with McFarlane Toys' new Mandarin Spawn 7-Inch Action Figure. A unique take on Spawn, this figure celebrates the unique style of medieval China with its armor and weaponry, and no Spawn fan will want to miss it!
